

DCVC to honor Marvin Boeglin at Veterans Day observance

was promoted to Staff Sergeant. Boeglin was Honorably Discharged in 1956 and awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for a night mission on July 1, 1953, in which six enemy trucks were destroyed. Marvin was also awarded the National Defense, Good Conduct and Korean Service Ribbons, and the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters.

Upon returning home Marvin attended photography school in Warsaw, Indiana. He went to work for Chase Studio, eventually purchasing the studio and retired after 42 years of taking photos of weddings and other events almost every weekend.

Marvin was very active in the Huntingburg Community as a member of the Huntingburg Volunteer Fire Department for 42 years, serving as Chief for 14 years. Boeglin was elected City Councilman at Large for four terms. He is a member of St. Mary's Church, Huntingburg, where he has served on the church council. Boeglin is also involved with the Eagles and YMI of Huntingburg, National Rifle Association of America, Dubois County Museum and Motts Military Museum in Groveport, Ohio. He is a past member of the Jaycees and Optimist Club, serving as president for one year.

Marvin served veterans by driving the DAV van transporting them to the VA Clinics and hospitals in Louisville, KY and Marion, IL. He is a member of Holland American Legion Post 343 and Huntingburg VFW Post 2366, serving on the House committee and is a member of the Memorial Detail Honor Guard.

Marvin married Jeanette Pfaff in December of 1952 and they are the parents of three sons, Denny, David and Jay. They have seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The Veterans Day Observance will close with a prayer given by Chaplain Kerry Heichelbech and a Salute to our Departed Veterans by the Color Guard of Post 147.

A reception will follow for the family and friends of Marvin Boeglin and those who participated in the observance hosted by Post 147.

Veteran Parade at Grandview on Sunday

Grandview will host the Spencer County Veterans Day Parade this Sunday, November 11 at 2 p.m. CST, with line up at 1 p.m. starting at the boat dock. Five grand marshals will represent the five branches of service. Following the parade, a program will be held at the Veterans' Memorial and will include a performance by the Spencer County Cloggers.

Everyone is invited to salute all the brave men and women who gave so freely of themselves so that we could be free.
