

DURANT NEWS

by Rowena Hill

Prayers are for Mrs. Katherine Cagle. She hasn't been well for some time and is pretty much home bound.

On Men's Day last Sunday at First Baptist Church, the men filled the choir and Lamar Land gave a good message. Thanks to all.

Shirley and Jay Higginbotham of Clinton spent last Friday night and Saturday with me, Joey, Jackie and Mark.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Joyce Keen. She hasn't been well for some time. Also, her husband passed away during the week. Burial was at Mizpah Cemetery.

All who attended the Sunday evening church service and fellowship at First Baptist were treated to a good meal after church, mostly prepared by our men.

Prayers and best wishes to Harold Payton. He hasn't been feeling well for some time.

Prayers are for Mrs. Betty

Faye Hathcock Edwards. She spent time last week in the hospital but isn't feeling well yet. We miss seeing her and hope she'll be well real soon.

Jodi (Hill) and Derek Hill are to return home Thursday after almost two weeks in Thailand. Two year old Cassie has been with Joey and Jackie Hill while they were spending time there. The two boys are with the May grandparents in Stewart. Cassie is a cutie.

week. My son Joey was among those. Sure hop he and everyone else had a wonderful day and many more to celebrate.

Happy Birthday to all who celebrated birthdays during the week. We are thankful Bobby Ellis is feeling some better.
