

CRAFTY KIDS

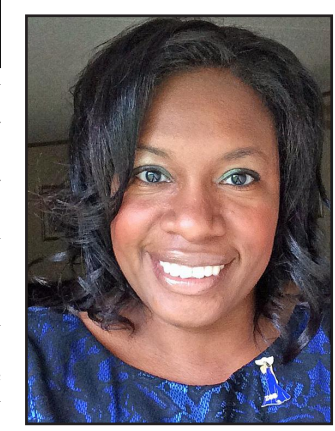

National Library Week activities continue throughout county libraries with programs for kids, teens and adults. Tara Howell, pictured standing, with the Mississippi State Extension Service in Holmes County, presented a jewelry craft program for teens at the Lexington Public Library Monday afternoon, April 9 in the Civil War Studies Room. The highlighted project was necklaces and bracelets that could be fashioned from round metal washers and leather cords. Stamp engraving was also demonstrated. Pictured above (from right), Central Holmes students Colton Sumner, 11th grade, Selena Gilmore, 11th grade, Hannah Malone, 10th grade, Kelsey Gilmore, 9th grade, Makalah Sumner, 7th grade, Kayla Jefferson, 9th grade, and Holmes County fifth grader Matthew Jefferson.
