IN AND AROUND LEXINGTON
 BY LEONA (LENA) FIELDS

Let's keep Mrs. Selena Morris of Tchula in prayer. Her son passed in Chicago. She's gone there to prepare for the funeral and burial.

Ms. Arnita Knight's sister passed, please uplift her in prayers.

I talked to Linda Day on Wednesday, April 11, she says her mother, Mrs. Leola Montgomery is doing pretty good. She has been in one of the hospitals in Jackson. Now she's able to sit on her porch.

When you are used to going where ever and when ever you want to, then get sick or handicapped and are house-bound; it's a miserable feeling. Therefore we should call the sick and shut-ins. Some of them are Mr. Earnest Lee Smith, Mrs. Jeannette Johnson, Mrs. Mary Hodges, Mrs. Leola Montgomery Mrs. Katie Horton and others. Call the people in the nursing homes too.

On Tuesday, April 10, TRIAD got two buses and carried approximately 52 senior citizens from Holmes County to the Black History/Civil Rights Museum in Jackson. Some of the political leaders paid for the tickets and treated us to lunches from Subway. All the seniors had an enjoyable time looking at the historical displays, photos, facts and other things. The senior citizens of Holmes County have a lot to be thankful for from TRIAD. They give an annual luncheon that a lot of people attend but those same folks won't attend the monthly TRIAD meeting.

Last Thursday the senior citizens that attend the lunch program at the Lexington Multi-Purpose center celebrated a combined birthday party for three seniors, Ms. Beatrice Hoover, Mrs. Mary Patrick and Ms. Nobbie Garnett.

The Volunteer Home Makers at the feeding site carried approximately 25 quilts to the senior day care, Living Stone, next to Anderson's Feed and Supply in Lexington.
