Funding the Fun

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Michelle Burrell, daughter of Buck and Nell Burrell, because of the recent death of her husband. Prayers are for the family. Sorry this writer is not familiar with her married name.

We at First Baptist Church regret that Mrs. Gale Sheppard has resigned as music leader and moved to Pearl. She will be greatly missed. She has a host of Holmes County friends.

Prayers are for those of our community who are undergoing surgery this week. Those who I'm aware of are: David Truitt, Mrs Frankie (Judy) Bledsoe and William Henry Hathcock. William Henry now lives in Flowood but we still claim him as part of this community. May God bless you all with success and healing.

The Sallis School Reunion was held Saturday at the school building in Sallis. There was a fair crowd but not so many as expected, probably because of the weather.

Mr. Francis Brantley returned to his home in Arkansas last Thursday after visiting with friends in the area for several days. Sympathy is extended to Francis and the family due to the death of his brother Marion. He lived in Florida but grew up here.

Joey and Jackie Hill attended the college graduation of their son-in-law, Warren Conner, in West Virginia during the week. He spent 20 years in the Navy as a Navy Seal. Congratulations to him on his retirement.

Mrs. Earnest (Bessie) Easterling of Jackson and Mrs. Allene Harvey of Memphis spent time with me during the weekend and attended the Sallis School Reunion. Bessie was the leader for the program.

A group of ladies from the First Baptist Church met at Kaffey's on Saturday evening for their monthly meeting. A good program was enjoyed.

All are thankful Mrs. Buck (Nell) Burrell is feeling some better after spending time in the Kosciusko hospital. May God bless and give healing to Milton Hoover, Harold Payton, W.R. Martin and William Henry Hathcock, and to those from our community that I'm unaware of. Hope to see all feeling well again soon.

I give you this one thought to keep--
I am with you still- I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle Autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning hush, I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone--I am with you still--in each new dawn.

Love and Miss You,
