Dancing Dan the Banjo Man

Mrs. Lady V. Marshall passed recently. She was funeralized Saturday. Her lifetime job was in the school system. She was principal of the S.V. Marshall Elementary School in Tchula. At the time of her death she was over 100 years old. One of her neices took good care of her in her golden years. Keep the family uplifted in prayer.

One of Evangelist Cora Bridges' daughters is sick. Pray that her daughter will heal from her sickness. It's serious.

Mr. Jimmie Gamble had a set back after his surgery. He was taken back to the hospital. He's an aged man but pray that he gets well and feels good again.

The Rose Hill District Association was enjoyed by all that attended. We met at New Gordon Chapel M.B. Church. This year was a big success. We had three churches to reenroll with the Rose Hill District. Now we are waiting on the other churches to return. The food vouchers were given on June 28 at the multi-purpose building in Lexington. People enjoy getting free fresh vegetables with vouchers. While the vouchers were being given out, the crowd sat patiently and waited their turn. Mrs. Bar-tee conducted the Mayor's Health Council meeting at that time as well. She invited the Senior Mission Team from the Mt. Zion Church in Antonio, California. One man gave a Bible message. One lady gave safety tips, she advised against using throw rugs as they are one of the main reasons for falling in your house. They gave out handouts on healthy food and free cookbooks. There were also blueberries and cherries to be sampled.

Mr. Judie, the project health director for the Delta was in attendance. He gave information on walking trails and healthy food. He said people need 150 minutes of exercise per week.
