Museum of the Mississippi Delta receives Mississippi Arts Commission Grant

The Museum of the Mississippi Delta in Greenwood has been awarded a $17,400 grant from the Mississippi Arts Commission (MAC). This grant is a portion of the nearly $1.4 million in grants the Commission will award in 2018-2019 and will be used to further the mission of the Museum. The grants are made possible by continued funding from the Mississippi State Legislature and (pictured above left), had been serving both churches as interim pastor before being named full-time pastor. He was born in Memphis but grew up in Ripley. He graduated from Ripley High School and from Blue Mountain College with a bachelor's degree in Bible. He received a master's degree from the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in 1978 and received in doctorate degree from Covington Theological Seminary in 2003. He was ordained in 1978 at First Baptist Church in Verona. The Capplemans have three children, Scott, who resides in Starkville with his wife, Kelly; Christa, who lives in Baton Rouge, La. with her husband, Andy; and Kati, who lives in Ringgold, Ga., with her husband Brian. They have eight grandchildren, Carly Beth, Eli, Clancy, Maddie, Micah, Ava, Levi and Caleb. Pickens holds services at 9:30 a.m. while Main Street follows at 11 a.m. Main Street holds Wednesday services starting at 6 p.m. with a meal followed by Bible study at 6:30 p.m.

the National Endowment for the Arts.

"The Mississippi Arts Commission supports arts activities in nearly every corner of the state through grants to arts organizations, schools, communities and units of governments," said Malcolm White, executive director of MAC. "The projects and programming these organizations produce with MAC funds help enrich our state's communities. This funding helps organizations provide arts experiences and educational opportunities to people who may not otherwise have access to the arts."

The Museum of the Mississippi Delta is dedicated to the preservation and interpretation of the historical, artistic, natural history and personal stories of the people who populated this area from prehistoric times to the present.

"MAC has been central to our success and expansion over the years with General Operating Support and Building Funds for the Arts grants," says Executive Director Cheryl Thornhill. "We literally would not be where we are today, particularly in terms of our renovated spaces. People who have visited the former 'Cottonlandia' are surprised when they walk in and see the new exhibit areas."
