Young 4-H'ers attend Project Achievement Day

Mississippi Delta Community College hosted the Northwest District 4-H Project Achievement Day on Thursday, July 12, in Moorhead. This is "contest" day for Junior 4-H'ers from the 20 counties in the NW District. Holmes County 4-H'ers were highly successful in the project areas where they competed. Jordan Brooks and Orin Howell exhibited in the Cloverleaf Division and won with their respective exhibits in the Meat Goat and Horse projects. Hanna Hood, Lawson and Wyatt Nichols comprised our Dairy Products Judging Team – winning that contest with Hanna scoring best overall. Colton Howell won the Forestry Judging contest. Additionally, each of these youth enjoyed the activities offered – Rocket Launcher and Circus of Fitness Fun. Skylar was the "cheerleader" and Livi Howell served as a Junior leader for the group. Each came away a winner for their efforts. Pictured before the awards ceremony at the contest (from left) Skylar, Hanna Hood, Jordan Brooks, Orin Howell, Lawson and Wyatt Nichols, and Colton Howell. Not pictured was Livi Howell who served as a Junior 4-H Leader for the group. (Photo by Betsy Padgett)
