

Holmes' young learners return to the classrooms
