CTA Teacher Reunion

Cruger-Tchula Academy closed its doors 18 years ago. It was a very special place in the hearts of many people. My father-in-law was one of the founding fathers and a board member for several years. Each of his 5 children graduated from this fine institution. Many of his grandchildren attended and graduated from CTA before it closed. I taught fourth grade at CTA for 8 years. Those students who were in my classes those years are very precious to me. I still see them on occasion as young men and women who are now rearing their own children. Many of them say that they wish Cruger-Tchula was still in operation so their children could attend the same school they had the privilege to be a part of. I recently hosted a get-together for the faculty and staff members that I taught with all those years ago. We ate, laughed, and shared our memories of Cruger-Tchula. Several of the ladies also attended and graduated from the school as well as working there as adults.

Every summer there are still class reunions held for those who graduated from CTA. My husband, Steve, is a 1977 graduate. Some of his closest friends are his high school friends. Any time they get together, there are always stories about friends and sports – and what stories they tell! It is hard to explain the kinship that CTA Colonels feel. The brick and mortar building may be gone, but the love and school spirit remain to this day. It was and still is truly a family. I hope you will give today's dip recipes a try. They are quick, easy, and delicious.
