

My 60th Birthday

Apparently the Unites States Postal Service has a quirky sense of humor. On my 60th birthday I went to the post office to get my mail. I had a letter from AARP, a letter from the Social Security Administration and a Victoria's Secret catalog. I was not amused.

Even though I turned 60, I realized how many sweet and wonderful friends I have. Fifteen friends got together and treated me to Tuesday on the Rocks at the Viking Cooking School and then we had dinner. I appreciate my sweet friends and all the gifts, cards and well wishes I received.

Four of my high school friends joined me for lunch at my friend Tricia's house where she prepared a lovely meal of chicken salad, broccoli salad, cheese and crackers, as well as my favorite lemon pie for dessert. My Mama hosted our family for a night out to dinner. She also made my favorite lemonade pie in a homemade pecan pastry crust. All in all it was a great week.

As summer comes to an end, we all reflect on how quickly the days have passed. School is right around the corner and with it comes football season. The lazy summer days are gone and I look forward to another great year with my 17 sixth graders.

I hope you will give this week's recipes a try. Thanks for reading.
