

Lexington Clean-up Day August 18

Pictured above left, Lexington Mayor Robin McCrory (at right) fires up the morning crowd of volunteers that came to take part in Lexington's Clean-up Day that was held on Saturday, August 18. The volunteer clean-up crews were dispersed from the Lexington Public Library into the streets and alleys of Lexington, collecting refuse and garbage. Filled bags were brought back to the library collection point. The event was hosted by the city of Lexington in collaboration with Keep Holmes County Beautiful. Pictured above right, Lexington Rotary Club volunteer team members (from left) Matthew Breazeale, David McMullan, Sterling Starns and Gerald Stinson pose for a pre-rain team photo at the morning rally.
