

Do All Things Children's Circle 2018 Summer Programs

Pictured above, Greek Steppers perform at the end of summer program on July 21, (from left): Titus Deering, Zakyiah Donald, Shamia Kyles, Shonece Woods, Jamiyah Williams and Jona Maye. Pictured at left, Percy Stephens (standing front), teaches academics to his class during a summer session.

Do All Things Children's Circle Inc. held its 2018 summer programs for area youth at the Holmes County Arts Council Building on the Lexington Court Square, through the end of July. Participants were exposed to enrichments programs like Greek Stepping, modeling and pageantry, drama and a field trip to the Mississippi Civil Rights Museums in Jackson. Pictured above are (first row, from left): Kendrianna Kirkwood, Aeri Johnson, Sariah Wiley, Destiny Gordon, Titus Deering and Sanai Coleman; Second row (from left): Dazlyn Post, Samija Wiley, MyLynn Epps, Shamia Kyles, Sarah Coleman, Wa'Shaunte Blanden, Zakyiah Donald, Shamyia Kyles and Desmond Post; Third row (from left): Dennis Thurmond, Aliyah Dickerson, Jona Maye, Jamiyah Williams and Shonece Woods. Participants not pictured are Tashaun Colbert, Moriah Post, Aniya Partee and Cordarius Dixon.

Pictured above, Sara Coleman shows off her modeling techniques during the End of Summer Performance on July 21 at William Dean Jr. Elementary School.

Pictured at left (seated), Wa'Shaunte Blanden performs the role of Queen Mean in "To Be Kind or Not To Be Kind" drama skit along with MyLynn Epps performing as the queen's guard.

Pictured above, DeJohnessa Dixon (standing) teaches her class during academic studies time while her students look on during Do All Things Children's Circle Inc. summer programs.

Pictured at right, Titus Deering performs in the role of King Kindness in the drama skit "To Be Kind or Not To Be Kind" during Do All Things Children Circle Inc. End of Summer Performance held on July 21.

Pictured above, instructor Deedra Wright (center) poses with the Drama Squad actors of Do All Things Children's Circle Inc. at the group's performance of "To Be Kind or Not To Be Kind" skit.