

WEST REPORT

by West Civic Club

Michael Tate, 2018 graduate of Burlington High School in Burlington, Kansas, son of Kenn and Kim Tate, has just completed his school's Community Connections and Career Connections program with the Tulsa District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers John Redmond Lake Office in Burlington, Michael said the experience taught him about the Corps of Engineers' mission and helped him decide on a college major in Wildlife Ecology and Biodiversity. Grandparents Billy and Carolyn Tate of West are so very proud to see Michael follow in his grandmothers, sister and brother-in-laws footsteps, as they are all employees with the Vicksburg Corp of Engineers.

Let's all remember that the Big Black River Festival is coming on Saturday September 8. Please tell all your friends and plan to attend. There will be this year's festival T-shirts, tickets for $200 worth of gasoline, music, food, paintings and art work. The Casey Jones Museum will be open. Music is also being provided by Big Earl of Pearl.

Buddy and Lynn Hathcock traveled to Fairhope, Alabama to visit Mary Hammond Stebbins, Lynn's friend from college.

Our sympathy to Natalie McLellan and family on the sudden passing of her uncle, Tommy Sykes of Fulton.

Brother Charlie Long had a special Baptismal service on Sunday morning for Mason and Tate McLellan. Out of town guests were: grandfather Lamar Sykes, of Pickens; aunt Loria Hyslop and cousins Holt, Sam and Ella Hathcock, of Flowood; dear friends Sam, Mandy, and Marlee Baker of Vardaman; and Brother Jerry Tate.

DURANT NEWS

by Rowena Hill

Sorry to hear that "Brother" Ingram was injured in a recent accident. Prayers are for a fast and complete recovery.

Friends of Ms. Barbara Kinnebrew are glad to hear that she continues to improve at a Jackson hospital. Good friend, Mrs. Cynthia Bratcher is there with her. All hope to see them back home and well soon.

Joey and Jackie Hill went with daughter Jodi May, husband Derek and children to the Alabama beach last Wednesday through Saturday. They seemed to have a wonderful time.

Prayers are with Jimmy Keith. he is to undergo surgery soon.

I spent several days last week in Clinton with daughter Shirley Higginbotham and family while going to see two doctors. While there, my sister, Mrs. Bessie East-erling and good friend, Mrs. Sandra Inman visited us. I was especially glad to see and visit with Sandra again since it had been probably at least 20 years since our last visit, when they (Sandra and Don Inman) lived here. She is a very special, and now retired, lady.

Mrs. Alice Paquet underwent eye surgery recently. Glad to see that she is recovering well.

Mark Underwood spent the week in San Antonio, Texas, with his cousins Warren and Pattie Conner. While there he helped them move to another home.

The Sunday evening church services at First Baptist is now at 5 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Pastor Lyn Nations is teaching from the book of Acts.

Lexington local gifts books to library

A donation of books was made by Mary Patterson (pictured center) to the Lexington Public Library on Thursday, August 23, in the name of The Pentecostal Heritage Connection, of Memphis, Tennessee. Patterson, who is a member of the organization, said the group "has been making contributions to the Lexington/ Holmes County community for the past twelve years, along with coordinating bus tours from Memphis to Lexington highlighting 'The Birthplace of the Church of God in Christ,' and the founding father, Bishop Charles Harrison Mason. Patterson is seen above with Librarian Marsha Jordan, loading the donation onto a cart to be housed in their future home in the library. (Photo submitted)
