Ebenezer native honored for hardest working man in church

The Reverend Dan E. March, pastor of Antioch M.B. Church on Ship Road in Benton, during the church's 134th year anniversary program on Sunday, October 14, 2018, presented longtime deacon L.C. Tate, 92, with a plaque honoring his longevity and dedication to the deacon board and to Sunday School. A second plaque given to Tate honored him as the "Hardest Working Man," at the church for his dedication to maintaining the grounds and the cemetery located behind the church. Tate is a descendant of the church founders who began worship at the site in 1884.
