

Longtime Lexington employee retires after 20 years

Robert Cooper (pictured holding plaque), was honored with a reception by the city of Lexington recognizing his 20 years of service and employment from September 1998 through September 2018, on Thursday, October 18 at Lexington City Hall. Cooper was presented with a certificate of appreciation and an engraved watch. Pictured above are (first row): Mayor Robin McCrory, Robert Cooper, Alderwoman Ella Edwards Benson and Water Clerk Brenda Powell. Second row (from left): Kevin Hayes, Tim Brown, assistant public works director, Officer John Newton, Custodian Pat Hodges, Officer Billy Reed, Public Works Director Danny Johnson and City Clerk Willie Mae Forrest. (Photo submitted)

Hidden in His Love

Do you ever think... If people only knew—if my secrets were ever made public, I'm not sure what I'd do! Or maybe I do....!

It is time to let God's love cover all things in your life. All the secrets. The hurts. The mornings you woke up in the bed of a stranger? His love will cover that. The years you peddled prejudice and pride? His love will cover that. Every promise broken, drug taken, and penny stolen. Every cross word, cuss word, and harsh word. His love covers all things! Let it!

Discover with the psalmist, "He loads me with love and mercy." Picture a giant dump truck full of love. There you are behind it; and God lifts the bed until the love starts to slide until you're hidden, buried, and covered in His love!

"Hey, where are you?" someone asks. You say, "In here—covered in love!"

Read more from Grace for the Moment.

Listen to UpWords with Max Lucado at OnePlace.com.

UpWords, with Max Lucado is a popular daily Bible devotion. This Max Lucado devotional offers wisdom and insight for applying Biblical truths to the ups and downs of everyday life. Reading daily devotions provides strength and encouragement in your daily walk with Jesus Christ.

Used by permission.

*Jaguars

(Continued from page 1.) The following are the Jaguars A-B Honor Roll athletes: Deonta Barnes, Keyonte Coleman, Abhree

Mississippi's state forester resigns after DUI arrest

Associated Press
Mississippi's state forester has resigned following an arrest for DUI.

Local news outlets report that Charlie Morgan resigned Monday, October 22. Forestry commissioners have named Assistant State Forester Russell Bozeman as the interim state forester. The commission didn't immediately announce how it will select a permanent replacement.

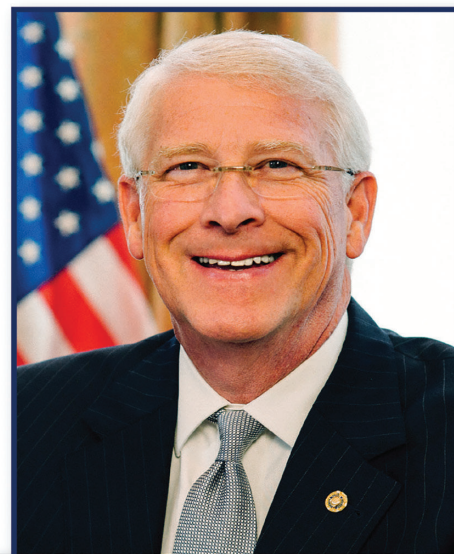

Morgan was arrested last week by a state trooper on DUI charges in Leake County while driving his personal vehicle. He was later released.

Ellis, Dandreyus Giles, Kelvin Gipson, Jamarcus Jefferson, Shon Mason, Demonta Oliver, Jalen Robinson, Justin Smith, Artavious Washington and Jedrus Watts.

Senator Roger Wicker

Conservative Leadership & Results FOR MISSISSIPPI

- ★ Confirmed a record number of conservative judges.
- ★ Eliminated hundreds of regulations, making job creation easier.
- ★ Passed historic tax cuts, which have directly led to more jobs, more investments, employee bonuses, and higher wages.
- ★ Fighting for more health care options for our veterans and a 2.6% pay raise for our military.
- ★ Senator Wicker's SHIPS Act is laying the groundwork to meet the Navy's requirement for 355 ships — and many of them will be built in Mississippi.
- ★ Devised innovative ways to fight Alzheimer's through Senator Wicker's EUREKA Act.

Roger
WICKER
U.S. Senator

Paid for by Wicker for Senate

Vote on Tuesday, November 6th