

DURANT NEWS

by Rowena Hill

Prayers and love are for Plez White. He continues to be pretty much housebound. All who know him miss seeing him and pray that his condition will improve.

We regret to learn of the loss of Tommy Gantt. He passed away at the nursing home in Kosciusko during the weekend. He had been a patient there for some time. He was the former maintenance man at the Lexington hospital. He will be missed by family and friends.

Mrs. Betty Laura Williamson hasn't been well for a while. Prayers and best wishes are for her. Hope to see her out and about real soon.

Mark Underwood is out and about after spending several days sick and homebound.

My daughter Shirley Higginbotham and brother Mike Hill were involved in a car accident in Jackson Monday, when they were hit by another driver. We are all very thankful they were not badly hurt but Shirley has a broken rib. The family is very thankful it wasn't worse.

Friends of the former Gale Sheppard were glad to hear she spent time in our town during the week and also that she is very happy. Hope she will return soon for a longer visit

Mrs. Emma Jean Breazeale enjoyed a birthday visit on Saturday, with her granddaughter Amanda (Breazeale) Goodman and husband Kyle, along grandson Matthew Breazeale and daughter-in-law Renee Breazeale. They enjoyed a barbecue lunch and visit for Emma's November 10 birthday.

Joey Hill spent time in Clinton with Shirley (Hill) and Sammy Higginbotham and Jay during the week.

The many friends of Wanda Joiner regret that she recently (about two weeks) passed away. Wanda had moved to Kosciusko a while ago after living in Durant for several years. She will be missed.

Friends and family of Mrs.

Edie Ruth Boatman regret to hear that she recently underwent surgery and pray for a quick and complete recovery.

Prayers continue for Mary Evelyn and Joe Crowder. They are pretty much housebound and are missed by a host of friends and member from First Baptist Church.

May God bless and heal them. We look forward to seeing them seeing them feeling better and with their friends that love and miss them.

All are thankful Mrs. C.H. Blanton, Jr., is improved and pray she will be well and back with friends and family.

She is a very special lady to many people in our town.

Congregates at First Baptist Church enjoyed the revival services last week, spending time with Bro. Ed and Libby McDaniel. They now live in Madison, Mississippi but have many friends in Durant.
