

New scholarship established at Holmes Community College

JOANN AND BOBBY KILLEBREW

Press Release

A scholarship honoring the late Bobby Eugene and JoAnn Robertson Killebrew is being established at Holmes Community College. The Killebrews lived in Durant until 1976, and thereafter in Forest before Mrs. Killebrew passed away in 2013 and Mr. Killebrew in 2016.

Mr. Killebrew served in several management positions for Textron, Inc., in Durant and Morton and for McCarty Farms in Forest, and as vice president of processing for Green Acres Farms, Inc. Mrs. Killebrew worked at the Durant and Forest Municipal School Districts. Both were tireless supporters of education in Mississippi—both in the public schools and in higher education. Bobby was an alumnus of Holmes CC and Mississippi State University, and JoAnn was an alumna of MSU.

The Bobby Eugene and JoAnn Robertson Killebrew Memorial Scholarship is being initiated by Karan Killebrew Clark and Eric Clark. An endowment is being created that will honor the Killebrews in perpetuity. The principal will remain intact and only the earnings will be spent. Recipients will be chosen based on scholarship, good citizenship, and need.

IN AND AROUND LEXINGTON BY LEONA (LENA) FIELDS

Mrs. Annie Sago is still absent from the Senior Citizens' Feeding Center due to surgery. Mr. Tommy Taylor is back at the center without his crutches. Mrs. Olympia Horton had started attending the center; now she's back at one of the hospital's senior programs.

Last week Fred Horton went for a doctor's appointment. I hope his mother, Mrs. Kate Horton has gotten some rest from attending her grandson's, Sametric Horton's, wedding. Mr. William Wright is still in the hospital.

On November 8, the seniors at the Senior Citizen's Feeding Site in Lexington celebrated five birthdays in a combined birthday party. The seniors that had a birthday were Willie Mae Kim-brough, Charles Wren, William Reese, Thelma Gwin and Mack Anderson.

It will soon be time to vote again. This time will be the runoff between the top candidates. It is urgent that you go back and vote in the runoffs. People, use common sense and think, your vote may just be the one that elects a good person for the position.

The Rose Hill District Association's One Day Session will be at Gordon Chapel M.B. Church at 6 p.m. on Monday, November 19. We are looking forward to the lay churches to attend. Some of the lay churches are: Shiloh, Greensborough, Big Mt. Zion, Damascus, McKinley Chapel, Mt. Pleasant, Pleasant Green, Chestnut Ridge and others.
