CCA students participate in Promote the Vote contest

Special to The Clinton Courier

The Clinton Christian Academy art department recently participated in Secretary of State Delbert Hosemann's Promote the Vote art contest. CCA had five students to place in their respective divisions: third grader Alex Mosley won third place, seventh grader Blair Breland won second place, eleventh grader Oliver Lynch won first place, tenth grader Madeline McElroy won second place, and tenth grader Makiya Hunter won third place. Awards were given at the Mississippi State Capitol by Secretary Hosemann. Governor Phil Bryant spoke at the ceremony.
