

Clinton's Eggstra Special Event planned for Sunday

Special to The Clinton Courier

Clinton families are encouraged to head to Traceway Park from 2 until 5 p.m. on Sunday, March 25, for the annual Clinton community Eggstra Special Event. Open to children ages twelve and younger, the event will have the traditional lineup of egg hunts and carnival games.

Eggstra Special has been one of Clinton's most treasured events for years and is a continued partnership between the Junior Auxiliary of Clinton and the City's Parks and Recreation Department. Held at Traceway Park, it provides an opportunity for the entire community to come together for a family-friendly egg hunt, with special activities and a visit from the Easter Bunny himself.

"The Eggstra Special event has been successful in past years because it's a great opportunity for children to interact with members of their community and enjoy playing games outdoors, as well as hunting for eggs, which is always fun, no matter the occasion, but especially for Easter," said Adam Wade, director of Clinton Parks and Recreation Department.

EGGStra Special Schedule of Events Sunday, March 25

- 2:00 p.m. ....Gates open
- 2:30 p.m. ....0-2-year-olds hunt
- 2:50 p.m. ....3-4-year-olds hunt
- 3:10 p.m. ....5-6-year-olds hunt
- 3:30 p.m. ....7-9-year-old hunt

Egg hunts will begin at 2:30 p.m., with zero to two-year-olds hunting first at 2:30 p.m. Ages three and four will hunt at 2:50 p.m., ages five and six at 3:10 p.m., and the seven through nine-year-olds will wrap up the hunt at 3:30 p.m. Event organizers strongly request that only parents of zero to two-year-olds and special needs children enter the hunting area to assist their child.

In addition to the egg and scavenger hunts, children can enjoy prizes, carnival games, space jumps and refreshments. For more information, visit www.clintonms.org.
