The Mississippi College Faculty Wives had their spring guest brunch to end the school year at Phillips House. Rhoda Royce opened her home to the members. Entertainment was provided by Sarah Newell, who presented a medley of songs on the piano and Dolly Parton's "Coat of Many Colors" on the mandolin. President Carolyn Cannon presided at the meeting. She surprised Mrs. Royce by announcing the Faculty Wives donation to the Dr. Lee and Rhoda Royce Endowed Scholarship. Door prizes donated by local businesses were won by many members and guests. Everyone received a gift bag and a Glorybower plant. The new officers announced are: Rowland Roberts, president; Lola Bennet, vice president, Day Group; Christina Burns, vice president, Night Group; Carolyn Cannon, secretary/treasurer; Carolyn Hood, publicity chairman; and Peggy Cudd, contact chairman.
