Ronald Morris named Chairman of Libertarian Party of Mississippi

Special to The Clinton Courier

Ronald Morris of Clinton, was recently elected Chairman of the Libertarian Party of Mississippi (MSLP) at the annual State Convention in Ridgeland. The State Chair of the MSLP usually oversees internal party governance, coordinates activities, and works directly with party membership on many other matters.

Morris says that during his term, he hopes to bring value to party membership. "I want to bring liberty home and offer a viable political party to Mississippians who feel they do not have one."

Morris graduated from Mississippi College School of Law in 2011 and works as an attorney for RevClaims in Jackson.

Scammers impersonate Entergy, target customers

Special to The Clinton Courier

Recently, scammers have been targeting Entergy Mississippi customers, as a new round of reported scams has popped up around the state.

The scheme typically occurs when the con artist calls and tells the customer their electric bill payment is past due, and their service will be disconnected if payment isn't made. The scammer then directs the customer to transfer funds electronically, sometimes through "MoneyPak," "Green Dot" or another third-party card or transfer system. The scammers are also using spoofing technology to make it appear on Caller ID that the call is from Entergy.

To help avoid becoming a victim of this scam:

- Never give personal information to strangers. If a call sounds suspicious, hang up and call 1-800-ENTERGY (1-800-368-3749) to speak with an Entergy customer service representative. Do not call back the number that appears on Caller ID.

- Entergy bills may be paid by phone or credit card, but only through BillMatrix, a third-party vendor Entergy uses for this purpose, and customers would have to initiate the call.
- To manage an Entergy account 24/7 and review account alert options to stay better informed, download the free Entergy smartphone app or visit entergy.com to register for myAccount online.
- Only use authorized methods and legitimate banking information to pay Entergy bills. This includes paying online at entergy.com; paying by phone at 1-800-584-1241; paying by bank draft; paying by mail; or walking into a payment center.

To report scam attempts, notify the proper authorities, such as the local police or the state attorney general's office. If an Entergy account has been affected, call 1-800-ENTERGY (1-800-368-3749) to speak with an Entergy customer service representative.
