Bus driver wins CPSD's DOVE customer service award for April

Special to The Clinton Courier

Mechanic David Willoughby is meticulous about the buses he drives.

"He drives bus routes when drivers are absent and repairs buses, also," said Clinton Public School District bus barn foreman Jerome Hill. "He makes sure Clinton's buses are as clean and safe as possible when going out of the district. He also knows every route the district runs and does his job with a smile."

Because of his hard work, Willoughby is the recipient of the Dedication of Our Valued Employees, or DOVE, customer service award for the month of April. He was formally honored at the May school board meeting.

"David always has a smile on his face and is so willing to help," said Clinton Junior High teacher Carol Ann Franklin. "When we need a bus for any occasion, he always has it cranked, warmed up and ready to go. He really spoils us. He is a perfect example of friendly service and willingness for assistance."

The DOVE Award is given each month during the school year to an employee who goes above and beyond in showing customer service to students, parents and the community. A five-member DOVE award selection committee chooses each winner from a pool of nominations.

"One of our top goals as a district is to provide great customer service to the community we serve," said Dr. Tim Martin, superintendent of schools. "We want families to have a good experience in our schools, and this award recognized employees who exceed expectations in this area."

Anyone can nominate a CPSP employee via the online form on www.clintonpublicschools.com.
