OBITUARY

Tawanda Yelverton Lea

Tawanda Yelverton Lea, 86, passed away Friday, June 8, 2018, at St. Dominic's Hospital.

Visitation was held from 1 until 2 p.m. on Monday, June 11, at Morrison Heights Baptist Church in Clinton. The funeral was held at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Lea was born in Mize, Mississippi, to the late Carl Yelverton and Daisy Bryant Yelverton. She and her husband, Denver, lived in Natchez, Mississippi, for thirty-four years, where she was bookkeeper and part-owner of Medical Arts and Morgantown Pharmacies. In 1994, she and her husband moved to Clinton, Mississippi.

"T", as friends called her, enjoyed being involved in her church, fishing with her husband, traveling, reading, watching football - especially her beloved Ole Miss Rebels - and playing Mexican Train dominoes weekly with her friends. She was a loving, caring lady who put others before herself, especially her family, and she was a wonderful cook and teller of family tales. She touched and impacted many lives and has left a legacy of love and faith.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Denver Luke Lea, Jr.; her sister, Clede Yelverton Magee of Magee, Mississippi; and an infant grandson. Survivors include her son, Clarence Wilton (Beth) of Fort Worth, Texas; daughter, Barbara Jean Lea (Bill) Campbell of Clinton; foster son, Alyson (Ruty) Coyle of Piedmont, Oklahoma; and stepson, Dan Lea; a brother, Dale Yelverton, of Magee; thirteen grandchildren; fourteen great-grandchildren with number fifteen due in July and her "boys," Bob and Richard Catlett of Clinton.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests gifts be made to Morrison Heights Baptist Church Special Needs Class 8211 or Morrison Heights Missions Fund.

Sebrell Funeral Home of Ridgeland handled the arrangements.

Jean Matthews Memorial Garden completed at Quisenberry Library

Special to The Clinton Courier

A reception celebrating the completion of the Jean Matthews Memorial Garden has been set for Saturday, June 30, between the hours of 12:30 and 2 p.m. at Clinton's Quisenberry Library on Northside Drive.

A community activist and longtime Clinton library supporter, Matthews, who died August 22, 2017, had served as president of the Friends of the Library and in many other leadership capacities for the organization over the years. The Jean Matthews Garden was made possible through her family's honoring her request that memorial donations be made to the Friends of the Library.

Persons who contributed time, efforts or funds to the special project will be recognized at the reception by Wayne Richey, Friends treasurer.

The garden is located near the north entrance of the library and includes a memorial bench, urn and in-ground garden.

Committee members for the special Friends project include chairperson Sally Henderson, Helen Blackwell, Jean Jeff, Grace Triplett and Mary Wilson.
