Dinner and a Movie events set for September and October

Special to the Clinton Courier

As the fall weather moves into Olde Towne, the Dinner and a Movie series will be back in full swing on the brick streets. The movies are shown on Jefferson Street at dusk, just in time to get a bite to eat, grab a lawn chair, and settle in. Each night offers a different dinner or snack option available for purchase to enjoy the alongside the movie. Avengers: Infinity War kicked off the series on September 7 with a large crowd.

The second movie of the series will be The Greatest Showman on September 21. Mississippi College's annual Family Weekend will bring in many visitors to the city, and MC students and their families are invited to join the Clinton community and enjoy a movie on the brick streets. Pig and Pint will be available for pur-p.m.

The next Dinner and a Movie event will take place on Friday, October 5, with the live action movie The Jungle Book on the big screen at dusk, approximately 6:45 p.m. Dutch's Oven, Dinner and Jazz on October 12, with the Mississippi College Jazz Band playing on the brick streets of Olde Towne. Grumpy Dave's Kettle Korn will be available to purchase, along with Cock of the Walk's catfish.

Clintonians are encouraged to bring their dancing shoes to show off some moves.

The final showing in the fall series of Dinner and a Movie will be The Little Mermaid. Families are encouraged to come and see the longtime classic at dusk (approximately 6:30 p.m.) on October 27 to round out the series. Attendees are also invited to stop by the bake sale, too, for some sweets to enjoy during the movie. The bake sale will benefit Clinton Park Elementary.

Admission to Dinner and a Movie is free.
