

Wells named Phi Theta Kappa staff accountant

Special to The Clinton Courier

Siara Wells of Clinton has been named staff accountant at Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

Wells is a Phi Theta Kappa member from Hinds Community College in Raymond, where she received an associate degree in accounting. She also holds a bachelor's degree in business administration in accounting from Jackson State University. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in accounting from Mississippi College, which she'll complete in December, and she plans to become a Certified Public Accountant.

"I am honored and excited to be a part of this great organization that helped me achieve my educational and career goals," Wells said. "What better way to give back what was given to me?"

Prior to joining Phi Theta Kappa, Wells worked as a financial assistant and grants specialist for My Brother's Keeper Inc., a non-profit social services organization.

Wells is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
