

Mississippi College nursing students give flu shots

Special to The Clinton Courier

DAYSPRING
community church

Where your best days are yet to come.

Dayspring exists to excite men and women, boys and girls about a life-changing relationship with Jesus and send disciples for ministry into our communities and around the world, for the glory of God.

Sunday morning worship times: 9 am, 10:30 am
 Wednesday evening prayer meeting: 6:30 pm
 Your kids will love our nursery and children's ministry.

Thanks, sponsors!

These generous sponsors make it possible to print an extra 3,000 copies of The Clinton Courier to go home in the backpacks of all Clinton Public School students in kindergarten through 5th grade! Newspapers in Schools is a great way to keep families involved in the community by sharing "the good news they can use." Kids and parents love reading the stories and finding pictures of themselves and their classmates in the paper.
