

Lovett students make holiday cards for troops

Special to The Clinton Courier

Teresa DeLaughter's homeroom class at Lovett Elementary School, with the help of a homeroom parent, made holiday cards to send to the deployed troops of the 150th Brigade Engineer Battalion. The deployed troops are stationed in Kuwait and won't be home for the holidays, so the class is sending the holidays to them. Lovett student Estrella Constancio's mother is deployed. Students who participated included Joshua Guerrier, Shawn White, Braylen Davis, Jordynne Hall, Aidan Kelly, Donovan Elliott, Jairen Cole, Bryce Cole, Amari Alexander, Griffin Threath, Madison Kimble, Rimaya Robinson, Austin Morgan, DeAntae Johnson, Breeya Fletcher, Nirvana Johnson, Madyson Ward, Kyla Keir, Ezra Searcy, Riley Wallace, Harkirat Kaur, Michael Baker, Jerusha Dasary, Khloee Bolta, Estrella Constancio, Damon Williams, Brooke Prestwood, Dakyri Bradley and Malasia Williams.
