The Butterfly Lady (repeat)

The Butterfly Lady will be here on Thursday, Feb. 22, at 1:30 p.m. Yes, it is still winter, but Monarch butterflies will typically begin their migration north from Mexico around Valentine's Day. Karen Albrecht from Fort Atkinson has been raising and tagging Monarchs for 17 Years for Monarch Watch, Waystation #712, since 2006. Join butterfly enthusiasts for an uplifting experience. She will be talking not only about the butterflies, but ways to help support them in the summer. Feel free to just drop in and learn about these amazing butterflies and the plants they need.

Writing My Autobiography

Everyone's life is a story worth sharing. It's time to write your memoir, two pages at a time. UW-Whitewater Continuing Education will offer a life story writing class led by a personal historian at TGP on Thursdays, March 8, 22, April 5, 19, May 3 and 17, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

During each weekly session, participants receive story ideas, guidance, exercises to prompt writing, and a broad theme on which to write a two-page story about their lives to share at subsequent sessions. To register and pay you can go online: www.uww.edu/ce/writing or by phone: 262-472-3165. Space is limited. Classes are open to anyone over 18. Try a class for free on Thursday, March 1 at 9:30 a.m.

Students of Integrity Scholarships

Submitted by the Wisconsin Better Business Bureau

The deadline to apply for the Better Business Bureau Serving Wisconsin Students of Integrity Scholarship is quickly approaching. Applications must be received by February 15, 2018 at 4:30 p.m.

BBB awards scholarships to Wisconsin high school students who have demonstrated character, leadership, and ethical values. The scholarships will be awarded for post-high school education at any Wisconsin-based accredited college beginning in the fall of 2018, including community colleges and technical colleges. As the scholarship recipients pursue their careers, BBB Serving Wisconsin hopes to develop future business leaders who will promote ethics in the Wisconsin marketplace.

To be eligible for this award, the student must be a high school senior, be a Wisconsin state resident, have a 3.0 - or show GPA improvement consistently over time - and plan to attend a two or four year, Wisconsin-based, accredited higher education institution.

For more information or to apply, go to bbb.org/wisconsin/scholarship.

Scholarship winners will be spotlighted at the Annual BBB Torch Awards for Ethics luncheon, which will take place on May 16, 2018 at the Italian Community Center in Milwaukee.
