Dear Santa,

How have you been in the North Pole? I have been doing okay for an eight year old. The weather has turned cold here in Tennessee. The only thing that I am waiting on is some snowfall to make it better with the cold weather. Santa, you know that Christmas is right around the corner. I was wondering this year have I made it to the nice list? I would like several things this year for Christmas. First I would like an iPad, new video games for my PlayStation 4 and some gift cards to help me get the things I need for my names. Now Santa, it's your time to shine. I just hope that I have been good enough this year to get what I want hopefully.

Sincerely,
Collin Huddleston
