

Dogs Have A Special Place In 4-H

Did you know that dogs have a place in 4-H?

You may be used to thinking of cattle, horses, chickens, etc. when you think of the animal shows at the county fair. But dogs actually have their very own show, and therefore a rightful place in 4-H.

The Clay County Dog program has made some significant progress this past year which includes upgrades to equipment, a new trailer to haul equipment and increased educational opportunities for youth to work with their dogs and learn training techniques.

Michele Gedgaud, a long-time 4-H leader in Clay County, has played a major role in the momentum of our dog program.

With adequate training equipment and the educational opportunities, the Clay County 4-H Dog program is a great place to learn the basics and take your skills to the next level. The Dog program is currently seeking new members and hopes you will consider joining with your pooch!

The Clay County 4-H Dog show will take place one week before the fair, on July 7 at the fairgrounds in Barnesville.

The show begins at 9 a.m. Come check it out – this is a great opportunity to learn and ask questions!
