

Best Of Show Parade Highlights Talent

One of the many great things about the Clay County Fair is that it creates an opportunity for people to show off their talents and creativity.

The Open Class exhibits at the Clay County Fair offers nearly a thousand different lots in a variety of divisions and classes. From alyssum flowers to zucchini vegetables and everything in between, exhibitors can bring something to the fair to be judged.

Once entered, volunteer judges critique the exhibits awarding ribbons. Over the course of the fair, hundreds of people walk through the Main Exhibit building to catch a glimpse and admire the labors of those who enter handcrafted wares.

Fairgoers can get a better glimpse of the top prize winning exhibits on Sunday, July 15, when a Best of Show Parade takes place at 6:00 p.m. at the band shelter.

The parade is a great way to recognize the hard work of the exhibitors and showcase all of the open class exhibits selected by the judges for that top prize. All who earn this distinction will be introduced with their prize-winning exhibit at the parade.

Whether you entered a project or just want to admire the hard work done by fellow fairgoers, make sure to attend the Best of Show Parade to finish off your 2018 Clay County Fair experiences!
