

4-H Fashion Review And Demonstrations

4-Hers can often be seen participating in various events throughout all four days of the fair.

Two of these project areas, demonstrations and fashion review, are available for public viewing throughout the fair.

4-H demonstrations can be seen in the 4-H building on Friday, July 13, from 9:30 to 11 a.m., and from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Demonstrations can consist of any topic of interest to the youth presenter. Demonstrations and fashion review will have both been judged ahead of time.

At 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 14, the public is invited to a free fashion show at the band shelter as part of the 4-H fashion review project. This event is great for all ages, and will feature 4-Hers with outfits they have either purchased or constructed. Awards will be given out for various age categories.

At the conclusion of the fashion review, there will be a drawing for two Cloverbud 4-H bikes.

Join 4-H at the fair as participants dive to new depths, learn new skills, and explore their interests through demonstrations and clothing and textiles.

Clay County 4-H is a youth development program open to all young people ages kindergarten through one year past high school.

4-H provides many opportunities for youth to learn and lead. For more information about joining 4-H, call the Clay County 4-H Extension office at (218) 299-5020.
