

Fair Favorite Penny & Pals Returns

All you kids out there, come on over to the band shelter at the Clay County Fair. What a show you will see when Penny & Pals return to the Clay County Fair Friday, July 13, at 11:00 a.m.

Penny & Pals concerts feature a delightful blend of spunky, original songs, playful costumed characters and kid participation. This will be a favorite family event.

Penny & Pals music is nationally acclaimed for excellence. They have produced several CDs and videos all of which have garnered recognition.

Penny & Pals received two Parents Choice Awards and have been a parent council selection. Other accolades include receiving awards from the International Reading Association and an International Communicator Award.

Penny Andrist and Gail Benson have been in the kid-biz for years, first as teachers in public schools and now as professional speakers and entertainers.

Their unique background in education and entertainment enables them to genuinely reach children and adults in both meaningful and playful ways.

Together, they have created songs, stories and characters that people readily relate and respond to with the truest kid-like enthusiasm.

During the show kids will interact with Penny and her gang of entertainers. There is a lot of dancing and singing during the show both from the stage and audience.

Each performance brings a moral lesson to children teaching them positive ways to live.

Penny & Pals are popular presenters among educators and parents because of their real-life kid experience and practical approach to learning.

Kids will have a great time at the show, so will parents and grandparents. Bring the family for a free and fun filled time.
