

Suz Dancers To Perform Friday At Noon

Back dancing for another year, dancers from Suz Dance Studio will be taking to the front of the main stage Friday, August 24 at noon.

Those performing will be dancers who have attended Suz Dance Summer Camp, held late-August. The Summer Camp is hosted and taught by members of Suz Competition Dance teams.

The dancers are ages pre-kindergarten to grade eight. Performances are practiced all week with their final performance at Potato Days.

The routines the dancers learn at camp will also be performed at the first home Trojan football game.

Suz Dance Studio offers dance classes for girls and boys, ages four years old through seniors in high school. Classes run September through March with performances at our Winter Dance Show, basketball half-times, Barnesville's Business Showcase, and a Spring Recital.

Pre-K through second grade dance classes begin with the basics of ballet and tap where they learn to count steps and listen to the rhythms in the music. Dancers are introduced to jazz, kick, and hip hop in third through fifth grades.

Dancers in grades sixth-12th also have the opportunity to try out for Suz Dance Competition Teams. Suz Studio has three teams: The Elite, the Starz, and the Starletz. Dancers on these teams get additional practice times and performance experience by competing at area dance invitational in Hip Hop, Jazz, and Kick. Competition dancers also learn the importance of fundraising, responsibility and commitment to the other members on their team.

Dancers not only learn routines for performances, but they learn technical skills and gain self-confidence that shows both on and off the stage. Suz Dance Studio provides a positive learning atmosphere and is an excellent form of exercise that's fun and creative.
