

"Potato People" Popping Up Throughout Town

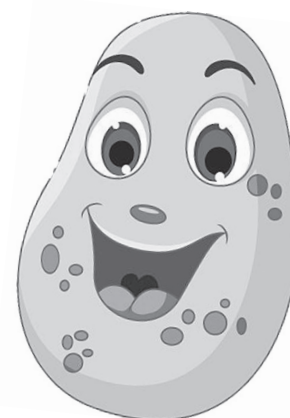

Thanks to the Barnesville Atkinson Elementary Kindergarten teachers, the Kindergarten classes and many daycares have once again made "Potato People" to help remind others of Potato Days soon to be in Barnesville.

At the end of the school year, they use construction paper to create their own "Potato Person". These creations decorate the windows of many Barnesville businesses.

Some of the businesses have generously agreed to give a prize to the child that finds their "Potato Person" in their window.

Parents and Day Care Providers are encouraged to take the children for a walk to search for their "Potato Person" and claim their prize.
