

Street Fair Offers Wide Variety For Visitors

Everyone loves a Street Fair. Some enjoy the talents shown by the vendors, some enjoy passing the time by looking and then others enjoy the “shop ‘til you drop” mentality. Whatever the reason, the Potato Days Street Fair offers a variety of items.

Vendors come from near and far. They offer up jewelry, clothing, pictures, wooden items, rugs, chainsaw carvings, puppets, floral design, baskets, sunglasses and whatever other items 180 plus vendors can come up with.

The Street Fair is held rain or shine, outdoors on Front Street. Show hours are Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

One of the drawbacks the vendors see is that when all the interested people come for the 5:30 p.m. parade, they need to start taking down their wares.

It seems the only way to get around that is for shoppers to be aware that they close at 4:00 p.m. and come early enough to shop before the area is closed so the Car Cruise can begin at 5:00 p.m.

The Food Court is open so when the vendors shut down one can enjoy a potato sausage wrapped in lefse, a fry bread taco, pork sandwich, potato dumpling, mashed potatoes and gravy or cool off with a smoothie or dips and dots or enjoy another of the fabulous food served in the Food Court. Pepsi products are available to quench the thirst.
