

Ya! You Betcha! Lefse Cook-Off August 24

On Friday, August 24 from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m., cooks from around the nation will try their skill at making the best lefse at the National Lefse Contest held during the Potato Days Festival. The Lefse Competition is sponsored in part by Valley Premier Bank.

Participants have one hour to perfect one sheet of lefse to present to the judges. The contestants can be of any age, male or female. First place of $200, second place of $100 and third place of $50 is awarded on appearance, taste and texture.

There is a $10 registration fee for each person or team.

Deadline for entries is the Monday of the Festival or when 10 entries are received. For more information or a registration blank go to www.potatodays.com.

Lefse is a Norwegian pastry made from potatoes, flour, butter and cream. It is widely prized as a delicious delicacy, whether served plain or with butter and sugar. Lefse will be available to buy and some ready to eat on the spot.
