12PM (noon) Sierra Branson

<https://www.facebook.com/sierra.branson.75>

Although she has only been playing guitar for a couple of years, Sierra is a passionate musician/songwriter who's songs are in the "Alternative/Indie" genre category that leans towards romance; both light and dark sides. She also performs with her ukulele as well as her guitar and has an amazing vocal range that can be both soothing and haunting. Sierra is currently writing songs for her debut album.

1:30PM Taylor Paige

<https://www.facebook.com/taylor.paige.77985741>

Taylor started playing guitar at the age of 12. Her mentor joined her up with three other girls her age and formed a group named "The Torn Roses" which performed at area events and music festivals in and around the Detroit Lakes, Minnesota area for a couple of years. After the demise of the Torn Roses, Taylor's love of music became her driving passion and she continued to write songs and perform. Now at the age of 17, she has released two albums and is currently working on her third. She was the recipient of the 2017 Celebration of Women and Their Music Awards for "Best Song writing and Performance" and also the "Soul Sister" for being most passionate, in the teen category.

3PM Thornyby/ Lenertz Duo

<https://www.facebook.com/dan.thornby> and

<https://www.facebook.com/plenertz>

In the summer of 2017, Pat Lenertz was getting set to play a solo gig at a small establishment in Detroit Lakes. Pat called up DL local, Dan Thornby, the morning of the show and asked him to join for a few songs which turned into a three hour impromptu duo set. The Lenertz/Thornby Duo was born! Pat has been playing professionally around the Fargo-Moorhead area for almost twenty years. His groups include Heavy Is The Head, The Quarterly, and The Pat Lenertz Band. Musical styles include blues, rock 'n roll, folk, country, and reggae. Dan has been playing professionally around Detroit Lakes for over ten years in Hardwood Groove. This electrifying jam band plays all genres of music and have their crowds dancing all night long. The duo comes together very naturally. Powerful vocal delivery, harmonies, and jamming acoustic guitars will leave your soul satisfied!

4:30PM Mr Jack

<https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=788837277>

Mr. Jack has been performing most of his adult life. He has played in many Blues bands over the years touring the upper Midwest and even did a tour in Sweden with the SkyBlues band in which he was a founding member thereof. If you like blues/ blues rock, and a few old recognizable songs from the past that will make you think "Wow, I haven't heard that song in years!", you'll like what Mr. Jack has to offer. He also is the host and producer of two shows on Nijii Radio 89.9 Fm, Cruisin' the Blues With Mr. Jack and it's regionalized sister show, Cruisin' the Minnesota Blues With Mr. Jack.

7PM Jacob & Brother Owen Mahon

<http://jacobmahon.com>

Jacob writes wordy songs about old people, and other people, cartoons and occasionally himself (but who would want to admit that). Influences such as Blind Reverend Gary Davis and Elizabeth Cotten add an old-timey feel to Jacob's guitar playing which, when paired with his unconventional vocal style, yield a unique sound. Paired with brother Owen this duo has a sound you don't want to miss.

8:30PM Roots Within

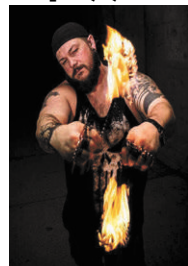

<https://www.facebook.com/rootzwithin/>

Rootz Within is a five-piece conscious reggae band based in Minnesota & Hawaii. Their uplifting songs spread a positive message of consciousness & unity, inspiring audiences to make an impact in today's world.
