

Jacam built this manufacturing facility (above) on a railroad spur about halfway between Sterling and Lyons on Highway 14. They have corporate offices in downtown Sterling. They also continue to use their manufacturing and storage facillities located in the Sterling Industrial Park southwest of town. Jacam has a fleet of trucks which they use to service oil wells all over the United States.

EIJACAN®

Jacam is proud to support continued progress in Rice County.

Interested in joining the Jacam family? View job postings at www.jacam.com/careers and follow us on LinkedIn.