

OC grads...

(Continued from Page 8)

better than others, but my friends helped me through it. The teachers at OC are amazing and kind, and will do anything to help you. I will remember all my wonderful teachers and all the fun times my friends and I had.

Madison Elizabeth Scogin of Union City

Parents: Malerie Byrd and Joe Byrd

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? To all the incoming freshmen, try your best in high school and enjoy it. Go to the games and hang out with your friends, you won't get these moments back.

Alli Shaw of Rives

Parents: Tim and Tracy Shaw

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? The advice I have for incoming freshmen is to make the most out of high school. Do not stress too much about schoolwork. Do not worry about who is with you. Just have fun, stay involved and always do your best to be nice to everyone.

Skylar Shell of Union City

Parents: Scott and Adrienne Shell of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember bosco stick day. It's not because I liked them, it's because I had to make sure my lunch was packed.

Deven Sheppard of Union City

Grandparents: Barbra and Allan Sheppard

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember all of the memories with my team. We spent more time working together than we did in class.

Kyler Shirley of Hornbeak

Parents: Ricca and Jason Shirley of Hornbeak.

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? Ten years from now, I see myself very successful with my dream job. I'll also be making lots of money, but I'll be paying on my school loans, still.

Hunter Smith of Troy

Cousins: Nita Burpo and Daniel Mitchell

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Enjoy your high school years because believe me they fly by all four years.

Avery Delanie Stover of Hornbeak

Parents: Shaun and Heather Stover and the late Amanda Eaves

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Incoming freshmen, try your hardest and keep your head up. Don't worry about what others say, remember that there are people that you can talk to at Central. Say no to drugs, be that bigger person and make a change in this world.

Taylor Beth Stroud of Union City

Parents: Paul Stroud and Ally Lewis, both of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the friends I've made. I will also remember all the amazing teachers that got me through all four years.

Ethan Sweatt of Troy

Parents: Daniel Sweatt of Troy and Kristie Hazlewood of Sharon

Question: What will you always remember about high school? Graduation Day.

Collin Terry of Union City

Parents: Kathy Essary of Union City and Alan Terry of Troy

Question: What will you always remember about high school? One thing that I will always remember about high school is always being able to spend time with my friends. High school allows me to be with my friends from other middle schools. During high school, I've become friends with people that I used to not be acquainted to. Friendships I have created in high school will always be my favorite memory.

Rosa Isela Torres Morales of Union City

Parents: Ma Guadalupe Torres Morales and Lucio Torres of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself working in a salon with my cosmetology license and striving to keep learning every day.

Sean Michael Traverse of Troy

Parents: Stephanie Traverse and Jason Traverse, both of Troy

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? To all the incoming freshmen, don't take for granted your time here in high school. It will be over before you know it. My advice to you would for you to be active in as many things you can be in. Oh, and one more thing, have fun!

Chase Truett of Hornbeak

Parents: Paul Truett and Joyce Gray

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself here in Obion County flying 10 feet above the ground, spraying crops. I see myself living a life with a nice family in a nice home. Ten years from now, I hope to have my life together and be cropdusting. In 10 years, I imagine a great life being put together.

Allie Marie Truett of Obion

Parents: Candyace Neel and Roger Truett

Question: What will you always remember about high school? What I will always remember about high school is the stress of passing, the drama and walking down the halls listening to all the voices trying to talk over one another.

Angel Tynes of Rives

Parents: Mattie Tynes and Josh Screen of Rives

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for incoming freshmen would be to make the best of it. Time flies by and you will never get that back. You should definitely be involved in clubs and school functions.

Alyssa Underwood of Union City

Parents: Frankie and Marsha Underwood

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I imagine myself preparing to finish college, while performing an internship with the FBI. I plan to receive a doctorate's degree in forensic psychology so that I can work as a forensic psychologist or profiler for the FBI.

Hayden Vissering of Union City

Parent: Stacy Vissering of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? There's a lot that happens in your high school years, so enjoy them while they last. They won't last long!

Sara Brianna Wilder of Obion

Parents: Brian and Jenny Wilder of Obion

Question: What will you always remember about high school? My most memorable experience during my years at OCCHS is helping my coed cheer team win the National High School Cheerleading Championship in Orlando, Fla.

Megan Winchester of Obion

Parents: Billy Winchester of Obion and Keleta Turnage of Troy

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the fun times I had with my friends. I will also always remember the teachers that helped me thrive and learn so much by pushing me to my potential. I will truly miss all of the people that impacted my life and made it so much better just by being in it. Thank you!

Madison Winchester of Obion

Parents: Billy Winchester of Obion and Keleta Turnage of Troy

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Incoming freshmen, get ready. Your journey is just now beginning. I advise you to get involved, study hard and savor every moment. In the blink of an eye, you will be in my footsteps. You will soon be deciding what college you want to attend and what you want to do with the rest of your life. While you are in high school, make life-long friends and many unforgettable memories because it will be over before you know it.

Nellina Wooten of Obion

Parents: James and Lara Wooten of Obion

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? For incoming freshmen, I advise you get involved, participate in sports if you're an athlete, do band if that's your thing. Join all the clubs you can and be active in them. Be interactive in class. Talk to the teacher and be involved. It will help your grades and make class more enjoyable. Don't be afraid to ask for help or advice on anything.

Make the most of high school. Enjoy it.

Hope Williams of Rives

Parents: Kelli Moore of Rives and Jack Williams of Fulton.

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember going to football games, dressing up with the theme for each night and cheering my team on whether we won or lost. That is what I will remember about high school.

Bryonna Rene Wilgus of Hornbeak

Aunt and uncle: Gina and Joe Clanton of Hornbeak

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years from now, I imagine to be happily married, with children, and a dentist. I hope to be thriving in my dental career and enjoying my choices I made throughout the past 10 years. Also, I hope to have my dream house constructed.

Deonte Yarbrough of Union City

Parent: Patrice Yarbrough of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Some advice I have for incoming freshmen is to choose your friends wisely. Every year of high school is important, so don't slack in any year. Stay away from drugs, alcohol and partying.

Marley A. Ziegler of Obion

Parents: Chrissy Ziegler of Obion and Rich Ziegler of Bethlehem, Pa.

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I would like to be working as an archaeologist in Egypt.

Congratulations
Class of 2018
 Get it done, and DUNN RIGHT!
Dunn's AUTOBODY INC.
 1318 Stad Avenue
 Union City, TN 38261
 731-885-0535
 LOCATED ACROSS FROM WAL-MART • HOURS: 8-5 MON-FRI

Congratulations
2018 GRADUATES!
 from
KENTON
 CHEVROLET
 Kenton, TN. | 731-749-5316 | KentonChevy.net

Graduation Gift Ideas

- Gift Cards • Alex & Ani Bracelets
- Hobo Wallets & Handbags
- Hunter Rain Boots • Jewelry
- Tyler Candles • Leather Tassel Keychains
- Quay Sunglasses • Leather & Pearl Jewelry
- Bling Pepper Spray & Alarms
- South Candles • Wrap Bead Necklaces
- Love Your Melon Beansies • Picture Frames

201 S. First St. • 884-1122 • Union City

NOW HIRING THE CLASS OF 2018

Begin an exciting career today!
 Apply Now at TN.GOV/CORRECTION

Hey #GradsOf2018 - you're graduating and moving into the professional world, congratulations! What's next? We'd like to encourage you to consider making that next step with Northwest Correctional Complex, launching a rewarding career with the Tennessee Department of Correction, the state's largest law enforcement agency. We play a vital role in Tennessee's public safety and with over 200 possible career paths, we're certain you'll find an area to utilize your specific knowledge and skills, excelling in your career and helping TDOC accomplish its mission. So what do you say, up for the challenge?

Learn more: <https://www.tn.gov/correction/employment.html>
 Interviews held every Tuesday.
 Contact NWCX Human Resources at (731) 253-5020