always remember about high school? I will always remember joking with my friends and going to football practice after school.

Nick Kopriva of South

Parents: Amy and Tim Kopriva of South Fulton Question: What will you always remember about high school? The cool teachers, Mr. Gray, Coach Seratt and Ms. Jackson. Macie Lester of South Parents: Charity and Malcolm Lester of South

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the long trips for softball games with friends

Keirston Luker of South

Parents: Jerry Luker and Freida Luker of South

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I'll remember high school as a learning experience by picking and choosing who your friends are; making mistakes then

I will never forget.

Fulton

Fulton

South Fulton High School Class of 2018

Seniors at South Fulton High School graduated Saturday evening.

Prior to their last days of class, The Messenger asked the students to share what they will always remember about high school, what advice they have for incoming freshmen or where they will imagine themselves in 10 years from now. These are their answers:

Jacob Adams of South Fulton

Parents: Leann Adams of Union City and Steven Adams of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Freshmen, DÖ NOT waste away your first year. Whether you think you want to go to college or not, keep your grades up in case you change your mind in the future. Your G.P.A. is crucial for scholarships.

Michael Adams of South Fulton

Parents: William Adams of South Fulton and Jennifer Blachard of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? Hopefully, still in the Army getting closer and closer to retirement.

Sara Archie of South

Parents: Edward and Jeannie Archie of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years I see myself working at a hospital. I will be done with college and I will be a radiology tech. I am hoping that I can get a job at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Union City.

Fulton

Parents: Tracie and Chuck Bing of Martin

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Advice that I have for freshmen is to always make memories. Do things that you know you will never forget, and write down your service hours.

Ginger Blair of South Fulton

Parents: Kim Radford of Martin and Bobby Brown of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? The advice that I have for incoming freshmen is to choose your pathway and arrange your schedule around it. Start on your community service hours as soon as possible. Get involved in any and everything. Experience never hurts! Last but not least, the group of friends you walk into school with on your first day of freshman year probably won't be with you when you walk out of those doors on your last day as a senior!

Avery Boyd of Union City

Parents: Kimberly Campbell of Union City and Jackie Boyd of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for incoming freshmen is try your best in high school so you won't have to worry as much your senior year.

Logan Brimm of South Fulton

Parents: Stephen and Melinda Brimm of South

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the relationships and experiences I had while in high school.

Summer Britt of South Fulton

Parents: Tim and Stacie Britt of South Fulton

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I'll always remember the friendships I made through playing softball and basketball. The many team nights, game day rituals and summer practices with my teammates have given me great memories to cherish for years to come.

Hunter Burton of South Fulton

Parents: Dale and Penny Burton of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I see myself being assistant director of a big library and pursuing an acting career on the side.

Hannah Grace Carlisle of South Fulton

Parents: Brittney and Chris Carlisle of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years from now I imagine myself to be a pharmacist somewhere near my hometown and going on international missions during my vacation time. I see myself being happily married and living a successful life.

Katie Clapper of South Fulton

Parents: Kim Clapper and Donnie Clapper of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? The advice I have for incoming freshmen is to enjoy the time you have in high school. Don't wish away your days because before you know it, there won't be anymore days to wish away. Also, stay close to your friends, day things will never be the same.

Austin Collier of South Fulton

Parents: Sunshine Manzanes of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? To keep your grades up.

Alexis Cook of South Fulton

Parents: Heather Cook and Jeff Cook of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself in 10 years married with three kids. I plan on having a job working as an occupational therapist.

Savanna Copelen of South Fulton

Parents: Tammy and Chris Copelen of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? The advice I would give to incoming freshmen is to keep your grades up, but also be involved in different service projects and clubs. Get out of your comfort zone and meet different people.

Megan Daniels of South Fulton

Parents: Michelle and Jimmy Daniels of South Fulton

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember making friends and making memories with them. I will also remember that no matter in life, they will always be there. After leaving high school, it's going to be a big change, but I can conquer any challenges.

Hunter Denton of

Union City
Parents: Tracy Denton and David Denton, both of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I'll always remember goofing around and annoying others around me, including the teacher. Especially the teacher!

Jasmine Eubanks of

Union City

Parents: Shaunna Copp of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? The advice that I would give to incoming freshmen is to enjoy high school as much as you can. Participate in everything, even if it is out of your comfort zone. The next four years of high school are going to fly by, so enjoy every second that you can because believe it or not, you will miss it.

Abbey Fulcher of South Fulton

Parents: John and Jenny Fulcher of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? The advice I have for incoming freshmen is to always be yourself no matter what. Don't let anyone influence you into doing something you don't want to do. Also, don't change for anyone. Make new friends and have fun while you can, make the best of every moment.

Zachery Goetz of South Fulton

Parents: Chuck and Carolyn Goetz of South Fulton and Kim O'Steen of Mayfield, Ky.

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? For incoming freshmen, I would say to keep an open mind about clubs. Being involved is good and also looks good.

Ben Guillory of South

Parents: Dianah Guillory South Fulton

Question: What will you always remember about high school? High school was a fantastic place and time for me. Football games, basketball, driver's education, great friends, the best teachers, my coaches and player friends that always let me be a part of everything and the sweetest lunch ladies. And of course, Mr. David Lamb who has known me my whole life. Thank you all for some of the best times.

Rebecca Hamilton of South Fulton

Parents: Eric Hamilton and Scarlett Hamilton of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? These are the days you will remember. Enjoy it and be involved when you can.

Seth Hicks of Dukedom Parents: Cheryl Hicks of Dukedom

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Advice I would have for incoming freshmen would be, no matter how you do in school you can always do better. Apply yourself for all four years and it will definitely pay off in the end.

Carter Hodges of South Fulton

Parents: Terri and Greg Hodges of South Fulton

Question: What will you always remember about high school? One thing that I will always remember about high school will be working hard at basketball and baseball every day during last period.

Devin Hughey of South Fulton

Parents: Jobeth McCord of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Don't over stress yourself. If you stress yourself in your first year of high school, you'll only make things harder for yourself.

Christion Jenkins of South Fulton

Parents: Tim and J.J. Jenkins and Jay and Steph Lewis of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine I will be a graphic designer, hopefully employed at SEGA.

Myah Jennings of South Fulton

Parents: Melissa Hutch of South Fulton and Jerry B. Jennings of Greenfield

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for incoming freshmen would be to stay focused!

Holly M. Johnson of South Fulton

Parents: Scott and Stephanie Johnson of South Ful-

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the friends I made throughout my entire high school career.

Demarco Joy of South

Grandmother: Jeanette Joy of South Fulton Parents: Franisha Joy and Deangelo Deberry

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice to the incoming freshmen is two years of high school. They'll affect your G.P.A. in the long run.

Fulton

South Fulton

Parents: Shane and Mary Margaret Joyner of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? Ten years from now I see myself with a good job and a family.

Gage Kimmons South Fulton

Parents: Danny and Donna Joyner of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In a cubicle doing computer work.

Fulton

Knott of South Fulton Question: What will you don't play around your first

Jada Joy of South

Parents: Mariana Jackson of South Fulton and James Joy of Bowling Green, Ky.

you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself possibly still in college unless I decide to change my profession. I hope to be pursuing my career option and be living life to the fullest.

Adrienne Joyner of

Bryant Knott of South

Parents: Eric and Jamie

Question: Where do

learning from them. Giving advice to every student who needs a pep talk and overcoming stage fright from talent shows. Waking up in the mornings and finishing my makeup in class before the announcements came on. I enjoyed sports, clubs and eating lunch with my friends. Crying happy tears, knowing that our last year will end up being the best year as seniors. David Lee Joe Madding of Fulton

Parents: Joy Madding of Union City and Scott Madding of Fulton

Question: What will you always remember about high school? All the friends I made and the football games, win or lose.

Tollie Mason of South Fulton

Parents: Tollie Mason and Shonte Nall of South Fulton

Question: What will you always remember about high school? Playing sports. Colton Mayo of South

Fulton Parents: Kenny Mayo

(See Page 3, Col. 1)

