

SF grads...

(Continued from Page 2)
and Erin Griffith of South Fulton

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember all the friends I made and all the good times we had.

Noah McGowan of South Fulton

Parents: George McGowan of South Fulton and April Harvey of Oakland

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the friends I've made and all the unforgettable memories we have shared.

Heavanah McLarty of South Fulton

Parents: Tanya and Jeff Roenicke of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I see myself living happily with a family and working as a nurse. In 10 years I hope to achieve a lot of goals such as getting married, having a family and coming back home to visit everyone. I will come back to see everyone at the school, it just may take me a couple years.

Sam McMinn of Martin

Parents: Mark and Allison McMinn of Martin

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? Living in a mansion on my family farm with one of the most advanced cattle operations in the world.

Nicky Morris of Union City

Parents: Stephen Morris and Katherine Morris of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the good times I had with my friends. I had a lot of fun times being in the different clubs, like Drama Club and being in band class.

Keshawn Murphy of South Fulton

Parents: April Murphy of Fulton and Cory Algee of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? I would advise all the incoming freshmen to just have fun. Along with having fun, know when it's the right time to be serious. It's easy to get behind and give up. Last, I'd like to tell all of you cherish the time you have in high school while you still have it. Appreciate all the things you have because sooner than you think you'll be on your own.

Katie Pope of Martin

Parents: Steve Pope of Martin and Amanda Pope of Sharon

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the first time I scored a goal in soccer. I was so excited and all of my teammates were so happy for me. My coach had a proud smile on his face. I will always remember that day!

Brittney Proctor of Union City

Parents: Jason and Sherri Proctor of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember my friends and my teammates. I will never forget my teammates in both basketball and softball. My teammates never left my side; they always had my back. My friends and teammates have gotten me to where I am now.

Tiffany Ransom of Union City

Parents: Timothy Ransom and Angela Ransom, both of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I imagine myself working. I want to plant a garden at my house.

Kaitlyn Reason of South Fulton

Parents: Shawn Sams of South Fulton and Donna Reason of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Always do the classes you have to. Keep your head up high and look forward to your future. It will be difficult, but you will never regret it. Keep your grades up and you will never regret it.

Diana Rico-Jimenez of Union City

Parents: Jose L. and Adriana Rico of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? Ten years from now, I imagine myself being a photographer.

Aubreigh Ruddle of South Fulton

Parents: Nikkole and Rob Ruddle of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I see myself with two dogs, living in a cute house with my cute husband. I want to be a physical therapist, so I hope to be starting that career in 10 years.

Lance Sambilloza of South Fulton

Parents: Sam and Jason Auxier of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I'll see myself successful and be a doctor of any kind.

Jalen Scott of South Fulton

Parents: Charlene Miles and Jason Mack of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? If you're an athlete planning on going to college or just a student in general wanting to go to college, stay on top of your work.

Nicholas Stockdale of South Fulton

Parents: Karen and Bobby Stockdale of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself as a staff sergeant with a family.

Robyn Faith Stowell of Union City

Parents: Rob Stowell of Union City and Tera Simpson of Sharon

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I see myself being a registered nurse. I want to stay close to home and work at a close hospital, but I am willing to work anywhere I am needed.

Jaqueline Strickland of South Fulton

Parents: Carla Vibbert of South Fulton

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will remember going to all the sports games and hanging out with my friends. I will also remember being in clubs like FFA and Spanish, because you get to do many things and meet new people.

Jasmine Strickland of South Fulton

Parents: Carla Vibbert of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Do not rush it! Take your time and enjoy making memories with your friends, because when you get to be a senior it will feel as if time has flown by.

Kelsey Stubblefield of South Fulton

Parents: Kelly and Christy Stubblefield of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself with a family, and working as a nurse in a hospital in a big city.

Joanna Tarkington of South Fulton

Parents: Joedy Tarkington and Vonda Tarkington of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? What advice do I give? Always do your best at everything you do, and always try to keep all As and Bs. Always get a good night's sleep and always study for your tests. Make a good grade on your ACT. In your last year, fill out as many scholarships as you can!

Patricia Truelove of South Fulton

Parents: Mildred Truelove of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself working 10 years from now.

Harrison Wells of South Fulton

Parents: Tiffany Carrol of Fulton and Derrick Wells of Jackson

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Take school seriously! Your future depends on it.

Tyler Williams of South Fulton

Parents: Billy and Ami Williams of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Do your work, be responsible and be your own person.

Trinity Wright of South Fulton

Parents: Megan Wright and Clint Wright of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Have fun and make good friend choices.

Kieran Wyatt of South Fulton

Parents: Lisa Marlow and Greg Wyatt of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I see myself working to better myself with a better career and staying with higher education.

Lauren Yates of South Fulton

Parents: Charles and Melissa Yates of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Have fun in high school. Enjoy every moment. Don't worry about losing and making friends, because that won't matter 10 years from now.

Congrats 2018 Graduates
of Union City, Obion County, and South Fulton High Schools

KIZER Pharmacy
Mom & BABY Shoppe

1117 S. Miles Avenue • Suite 1 • Union City, TN 38261
BISHOP CENTRE BUILDING • 885-2226

2018 CONGRATULATIONS!

Don't dream it... drive it

Jerry Ward
AUTOPLEX

524 E. Reelfoot Ave. 731-599-1199 Union City, TN
Visit our website: www.jerrywardautoplex.com

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES 2018

cbtctnet.com

Commercial Bank
AND TRUST COMPANY

Established 1877 • Member FDIC

815 East Reelfoot Ave. 127 South First St.
731-884-4243 Union City, TN | 38261

Member FDIC

CLASS of 2018 CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES

TRANE JOHNSON
HEATING & AIR

It's Hard To Stop A Trane.

100 S. First Street • Union City • 731-885-8325 • www.airjohnson1.com