

UC grads...

(Continued from Page 4)

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I will hopefully be done with undergraduate and graduate school. After graduating pharmacy school, I should have my doctorate degree. I plan to utilize my degree and begin working as a pharmacist in a bigger city.

Alexis Culver of Union City

Parents: Bruce and Roma Culver of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for incoming freshmen is to savor every moment of your four years at UCHS. Enjoy every sporting event, every dance and every second spent with friends and family because before you know it, you'll be the ones graduating!

Ja'Kari Dukes of Union City

Parent: Kemi Cawthon of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? I would tell incoming freshmen that they need to stay focused in school. Freshmen need to be able to multitask and make sure that their work is done on time. Also, I believe that freshmen need to pass all of their classes, so they don't have to repeat anything.

Andrew Morris Easley of Union City

Parent: Carol Easley

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember Friday nights at War Memorial Stadium.

Nolan Faulkner of South Fulton

Parents: Dan and Laura Faulkner of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Make sure that you are always on top of your work and keep your grades up.

Diego Ferrer of Martin

Parents: Luis Ferrer and Nancy Herrera of Martin

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I greatly enjoyed my time going to Union City High School. Attending UCHS has provided me with incredible experiences. Among my favorite memories of high school, I will always remember my time in marching band, especially the times we went to Contest of Champions, one of the biggest marching band competitions in Tennessee. I will also remember all of the great friends that I made, who made me enjoy high school the most.

Madison Fitts of Union City

Parents: Derrick and Deadra Fitts of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Incoming freshmen should always stay ahead of the game, stay organized and never procrastinate.

Kaila Elaine Fowler of Union City

Parents: Akila and Michael Mitchell of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I see myself living in a big house with my husband and daughter. I will be working on opening my own children's clinic. I see myself changing lives. Life will be great.

Hunter Fuller of Union City

Parents: Frankie and Jana Fuller of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I personally don't know where I'll be in 10 years. All of our futures are questionable, but to secure a good life we must make prudent decisions and remain open minded in a world of opposition.

Joseph Domingo Garza of Union City

Parents: Renee Dillon and Richard Dillon of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I'll always remember these good ol' days with a lot of memories spent with friends while going to UC. I have been here almost four years and had ups and downs; however, I would never change any of it. Can't wait to see young faces of future generations to come.

Patricia Godinez of Union City

Parents: Fortino Godinez and Maria Sulema Perez of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the dress code of the school and when we do the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

Sheldon Hammond Jr. of Union City

Parents: Shanina Carpenter of Union City and Sheldon Hammond Sr. of Memphis

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I imagine myself living a happy and successful life. I plan to start my own business and grow. I also plan to travel across the world to preach the gospel to men, women, boys and girls.

Prechona J'Naya Henry of Union City

Parent: Vicky Henry of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I imagine myself doing whatever makes me happy and pursuing my career business. I intend on having or starting my own business, consisting of fashion apparel. I see myself being successful in 10 years.

Traon Henry of Union City

Parents: Tracey Henry and the late Theresa Henry of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself being a businessman owning my own restaurant business or being a comedian.

Duncan Hollis of Union City

Parents: Melanie Hollis of Union City and Randy Hollis of Obion

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? The best course of action in high school is to take every opportunity you're presented with to work rigorously. Procrastination doesn't help, it hinders and plenty of unnecessary stress can be avoided by refusing to procrastinate. A plethora of due dates will appear in high school, but they are no cause for concern if the work is done as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Jonas Ingram of Union City

Parents: Towanna Ingram and Willie McFarland

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for freshmen coming is always stay ahead of the game, never, and I mean never slack up. Also, do your expert project day; it'll help you in the long run.

Austin Jernigan of Union City

Parents: Samantha and Wright Jernigan of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? Looking back on high school in a few years, I will never forget the times I spent with my friends. Through football and track, I was able to make new friends and build relationships that will last a lifetime. Staying up late, sweating constantly at football and long track meets are things I will never forget.

Brianna Michelle Johnson of Union City

Parents: Brian and Amy Johnson of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I imagine that I will be graduated with my doctorate degree in nursing from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. I also imagine that I will be loving my job as a nurse in the E.R. and have my own happy family.

Justice Celease Johnson of Union City

Parents: Jenny and Stevie Flowers of Troy and Tim and Sue Pearson of Puyallup, Wash.

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I imagine myself living in a big city working either at a children's hospital or a trauma unit as an R.N. Additionally, I imagine living in a nice house with my husband and baby girl.

Grace Kennedy of Union City

Parents: Pete and Lonna Kennedy of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I hope to have graduated from UTM with a degree in music education, maybe even a master's in the subject. By then, I hope to be directing my own group of young musicians. If the music program of the school I am at is small, I hope to make it stronger and bigger to where the arts is a large part of the school, like at Union City. In 10 years, I hope to have influenced and impacted students to love music and perform it to the best of their abilities.

Ryanne Brooke Kessel of South Fulton

Parents: Randy and Mary Kessel of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I imagine I will be graduated from college with a master's degree in occupational therapy. I imagine I will be married and have a stable job that I love.

Aubrye Ayriona King of Union City

Parents: Steven King and Sandra Smith

Question: What will you always remember about high school? One thing I will remember from high school is how much you grow within those four years. It's an amazing feeling when you get to watch yourself and all of your peers grow into young adults. Even though I don't plan to ever go back to high school, those memories will always be special to me.

Kameron Kirk of Trimble

Parents: Lara Jo Gorman of Trimble and Kyle Kirk of Troy

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Some advice that I would give to incoming freshmen is to be friends with everyone and you will have no problems.

Grant Kizer of Union City

Parents: Jason Kizer and Kristi Kizer

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the relationships I made with my classmates in the classroom or on the football and baseball fields. The memories I have made with them will always stick with me the most.

Rachael McKenzie Lamb of Union City

Parents: Brian and Alison Lamb of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice to any incoming freshman is to cherish every moment. High school goes by in the blink of an eye. Go to every sporting event you can and hang out with your friends every chance you get.

Travelle Littleton of Union City

Parents: Keresia Robinson of Union City and Durell Littleton of Murfreesboro.

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? If you get a detention, serve it early. Don't wait until Friday because you are not going to want to go, so it's best to go ahead and get it out of the way and you will avoid going to "The World" (ISS).

David A. Long of Union City

Parents: Shane and Kristy Long of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the things I got to do while being in high school, like going to games and field trips. I will also remember the EOCs and finals stressing me out the day before the test. Finally, I will always remember wanting to sleep a little longer instead of getting up for school.

Miles Ty Holden Long of Troy

Parents: Tanya and Johnny Long of Troy

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Have a good attitude in your every day life. Be nice to people that are not nice to you, but above all, have good character and respect for the people trying to help you even if they anger you and stress you out daily.

Lyric Elicia Mackins of Union City

Grandmother: Nora Lee Mackins of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for the incoming freshmen is, yes, it may be hard and yes, you might slack a little, but never give up on the best opportunity of becoming a UCHS graduate. You have to fall before you fly, students! Just keep pushing through and you will see a big change while being here at UCHS. Good luck, and I wish you all the best and remember, No Excuses!

Elizabeth Jayne Maclin of Union City

Parents: Hank Maclin of Portageville, Mo., and Brad and Cindi Cook of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for incoming freshmen is to not wish these next four years away. Put effort into your school work, listen and participate during class, don't procrastinate, and spend more time on your homework than you do on social media. Choose your friends wisely and believe in yourself, no matter what.

Maggie Martin of Union City

Parents: Jerry Prestan Martin and Edie Thompson

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Discover things about yourself. Your mind, body and soul are oceans. Go scuba diving.

Caroline Elizabeth Martinek of Union City

Parents: Doug and Amy Martinek of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember cheering on multiple state championship teams and even getting to play in the softball state tournament. Also, coming off the field smiling ear to ear after a great band show, and then winning with some of my best friends was the greatest feeling. These are some of the moments that I will never forget about high school.

Olivia Matherly of Troy

Parents: Jason and Jessica Matherly of Troy

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 year from now, I imagine myself married and having my own business in Union City.

Matt McMillan of Martin

Parents: Kevin and Paige McMillan of Martin

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years from now, I imagine myself playing basketball, coaching basketball or giving basketball lessons to young children. Knowing me, I probably won't be married and probably still won't be in my first serious relationship. Whatever I do with basketball, my side job will be giving basketball knowledge and sharing my wisdom with the youth.

BreAnna Meetze of Union City

Parent: Neiska Meetze of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice to freshmen is take school seriously and stay in school because everyone will be proud of how you finish school. You will feel good about yourself.

John Palmer Miles of Rives

Parents: John and Kristen Miles of Rives

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My best advice for freshmen would be that it's never too early to start thinking about college. Before you know it, it's your senior year and college is right around the corner.

Alivia Lauren Morris of South Fulton

Parents: Ronnie and Danielle Morris of South Fulton

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? I would advise incoming freshmen to focus on all four years of high school.

Kayla Haleigh Orsborne of Union City

Parents: Robby and Devonda Orsborne

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Don't feel pressured to do what everybody else is doing. It's okay to focus on your own happiness, and make choices that are the best for your life. The quote I've held onto throughout high school is "Follow your heart. Do what you love. Because I was constantly struggling with that. If it's in your heart, go for it. Don't listen to other people." — Maz Jobrani.

Thompson Cultra Paschall of Rives

Parents: Kevin and Amy Paschall

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I plan to have a decent job to where I can live by myself or with my wife. My goal for a decent job would be in the agriculture field.

Chase Penick of Union City

Parents: Tracy Wisdom and Simone Wisdom of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine me and my wife sitting at home from a long day's work at being a physical therapist and my wife whatever she does. I'm living in a decent-size house and trying to own real estate and stocks. I wouldn't really want kids yet, but want to consider adoption because I want to make a difference in a less fortunate child's life.

Kaleb Perkins of Union City

Parent: Misty Lightner of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? As long as you believe in yourself and work hard, you will succeed.

Cameron Pirtle of Union City

Parent: Geneva Crumble of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Do not take your time in school for granted because school will go by fast.

Christopher Michael Pituch of Union City

Parents: Thomas Pituch of Rives and Lisa Williams of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? Ten years from now, I imagine myself a married man, a captain in the Army National Guard and maybe teaching at Union City High School or being a radio announcer. I've been told I have the voice for the job.

Colton Quick of Union City

Parents: Shelly Roberson and Ray Quick

Question: What will you always remember about high school? The moment I held the state championship trophy in the air.

Jayvius Reid of Union City

Parents: Tawana Burnett and Thomas Dysart of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself living in a big house with two or three kids and an amazing wife.

Zaria Emunie Robinson of Union City

Parents: Dallas Robinson, Gale Robinson and Lisa Abbott

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? To incoming freshmen, The time you spend in high school may seem like a lifetime, but in four years, you'll look back and wonder where time went. Don't dwell on the things you cannot change, and embrace the little things. Don't procrastinate, love yourself and don't forget to breathe. The stress will be worth it; trust me.

Avery Rodgers of Union City

Parents: Heather Rodgers and Kelly Rodgers

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Coming into high school as a freshman, you should know the importance of the ACT and your GPA. You should become more in depth with the AP courses and see what you will be successful in, not take the class because everyone else is. Moreover, you should take every opportunity you're offered and join as many clubs as you can to fill up your transcript. Taking in every moment and spending time with the people around you is the most important thing to remember because high school will be over before you know it.

Hara Jordon Sarmiento of Union City

Parents: Alberto Sarmiento and Rosaura Maldonado Acevedo

Question: What will you always remember about high school? The great things my teacher Ms. Regina Turner did for me and what I learned to do in school.

Landon Scribner of Union City

Parents: Adam and Holly Scribner of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Don't get on teachers' nerves and don't wait until the last minute to do your work.

Aleigha Kathryn Seals of Hornbeak

Parents: Jeremy and Natalie Seals of Hornbeak

Question: What will you always remember about high school? One thing I will always remember about high school is winning the National High School Cheerleading Championship in 2017. This was an event that I practiced my whole life for. Cheerleading is a major part of my life and an experience that has impacted me greatly. Winning Nationals is a memory I will cherish forever.

Jay Shannon of Union City

Parents: Tamara Gause, John Shannon and Twinky Shannon, all of Union City

Question: What will you

(See Page 6, Col. 1)

SAVE! SAVE! SAVE!

IF YOUR POTENTIAL CUSTOMERS LIVE IN OBION OR WEAKLEY AREA...

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT THE MESSENGER AT 731-885-0744 OR THE WEAKLEY COUNTY PRESS AT 731-587-3144

WOLAND MILLS (38271) SOUTH FULTON (38257)

OBION (38244) UNION CITY (38261)

SAMBURG (38268) TROY (38260) RIVES (38253)

HORNBEAK (38232) OBION (38244) KENTON (38233)

WEAKLEY (38237) DRESDEN (38225)

MARTIN (38237) SHARON (38255) GLEASON (38229)

GREENFIELD (38230)

SPECIAL RATES

GIVE US A CALL...

25% DISCOUNT FOR USING ALL 4 PUBLICATIONS

TOTAL DISTRIBUTION 18,500!

GIVE US A CALL. WE'LL MAKE ALL THE ARRANGEMENTS AND SEND YOU ONLY ONE BILL!