

UC grads...

(Continued from Page 5) always remember about high school? Being able to chill in Coach Moore's class while he pushed me, making me the young man that I am today. I'm blessed to have these amazing teachers at Union City High School to push me for greatness. Thank you, everyone!

Wes Sisco of Union City
Parents: Sherri Moore of Rives and Shane Sisco of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the fun times on band competitions.

Kenedy M. Sisson of South Fulton
Parents: Mike Sisson and Tammy Sisson of South Fulton

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I hope to be finished with medical school and starting my residency in either cardiology or dermatology.

Devin Smith of Union City

Parents: Tysie Avery and Davie Smith of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I imagine myself being a state trooper.

Dy'Mond Alexis Smith of Union City

Parents: Latasha and Anthony Smith of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years from now, I see myself dealing with something involved with sport medicine. I also imagine myself being an athletic trainer and having a small family.

Journu Anyia Smith of Union City

Parents: Patrick and Freda Smith of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Dear incoming freshmen, make sure you focus on your studies and do not play around; just keep working hard and it will pay off in the long run. #No Excuses.

Brandon Smothers of Union City

Parent: Beverly Stephens

of Union City
Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the friends I made during high school because if it weren't for them, who knows where I would be. I also remember the teacher that pushed me to finish school. When I graduate, I will be happy to say I graduated from UCHS.

Skylar Mary Elizabeth Stewart of Martin

Parents: Cheryl and Anthony Stewart of Martin

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice to incoming freshmen is to look for something positive in each day and stay true to who they are.

Richard Summers III of Union City

Parents: Ricky and Hayley Summers of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? I imagine myself, five years post college, owning a chain of businesses or working for a headquarters of a chain of businesses. I see myself governing a company towards fortunes, making them 10 times what I'm paid. I see myself as successful.

Nadia Treadwell of Union City

Parents: Adrian and Teena Jarmon and Marcus Treadwell.

Question: What will you always remember about high school? Being in the running for Miss UCHS with two of my amazing classmates was a blessing, but being named the Class of 2018's Miss UCHS was unforgettable. Winning an award that was voted on by my peers means so much to me because I have always taken pride in treating others like I want to be treated. I will never forget this day in high school.

Robert Ullrich of Union City

Parents: Karl and Genie Ullrich of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? In 10 years, I plan to be finishing up medical school and searching for a residency that best fits my interest. At the moment, becoming a pediatrician has caught my eye. It is a field I look forward to pursuing.

Austin Virden of Union City

Parents: Letha Virden and Jeremy Virden of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? These next four years count the most. Don't mess around or slack off. Every day will go toward your future. Try hard in every class you take. Do not let drama or any outside conflict cloud your academics. If you go in to this with a positive attitude, these four years will be your best. Finally, achieve what you need to achieve and do not let anybody tell you that you can't do it. Take care and God bless.

Braxton Waddell of Union City

Parents: Amanda Meeks of Union City and Dan Waddell of Eatonton, Ga.

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember Coach Moore's daily words of wisdom.

Jermize Da'jhure Weddle of Union City

Parents: Bruce Wiggins and Lil Weddle, both of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember my experiences and memories of high school.

All four years of my high school career have been a blast and lot of great moments. My greatest moment of high school is the senior prom. I had a great time and the people around me had a great time. It was a moment to wait for and to top it off, I won prom king. So, I will always remember this lovely night and will always look back on it.

Thomas Wilton Wade of Union City

Parents: Will and Kim Wade of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? On thing I will always remember about high school is my senior football season. Even though we had ups and downs throughout the season, we never stopped caring. We came together as a team and were determined to bring home the gold ball. I will never forget Dec. 1, 2017, when we won the state championship in double overtime. I will always have an image in my head of holding the gold ball while wearing my Union City jersey with a smile from ear to ear.

Ashton Randall Webb of Union City

Parents: Randall and Shelly Webb

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? Work hard when you're a freshman and make sure you get the best grades you possibly can. Be on time to your classes so you set a good foundation for future years in high school. Think highly of yourself and never allow anyone to tell you what to do or who you will be in the future.

Nadeja LaCole Webb of Union City

Parent: Tyronza Mays of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? Ten years from now, I plan to be a physician or some type of family medicine doctor.

Colton Wheatley of Union City

Parents: Javan and Brandy Wheatley of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for incoming freshmen would be that you should start off school with good grades and attitude. Freshman year in high school is the most important because if you don't have good grades and just don't care about school, you'll regret everything by your senior year. However, just have fun with school and enjoy it because time flies, and it feels as if yesterday I was starting my first day in high school.

Tyler Whitby of Union City

Grandmother: Jean Whitby of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for incoming freshmen is that you must work hard to accomplish your goals and make everyone proud, but you must be ready for the final four years you have left of school.

April Marjorie Willett of Union City

Parents: Josh and Leigh Ann Willett of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember all the band trips and all laughs we had.

Jasmine Chanel Williams of Union City

Grandmother: Judy Jones; Parent: Marlena Williams of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? The thing that I will always remember about high school is how much fun we had in P.E. and in art. I loved P.E. The one thing that I liked about it was having free time and being able to laugh and talk about the day. In art, we were able to talk while we worked.

Claire Wisener of Rives

Parents: Clark and Joanna Wisener of Rives

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember my experiences from marching band from long night practices to playing the stands to getting ready at competitions. Band has provided me with lots of fun during high school. Band has always required me to work hard to succeed; therefore it has also taught me work ethic and dedication. I know I'll cherish my band memories and reminisce often after high school. I'm glad to have been a member of the purple people all four years.

Jaden Woods of Union City

Parents: Gina Atkins and Kenny Woods of Union City

Question: What will you always remember about high school? I will always remember the memories I made while playing soccer and football. I made lots of friends and enjoyed my time participating.

Jahnae Woods of Union City

Parents: Tanya Woods and Clinton Johnson of Union City

Question: Where do you imagine yourself 10 years from now? Because I am majoring in political science, I imagine myself being a successful political lawyer. I also plan to utilize my writing skills and pursue a possible career in writing.

Jared Woodward of Union City

Parents: Dale Woodward and Amy Woodward of Union City

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My advice for incoming freshmen is to work hard in everything you do because it will all pay off in the end.

Jeremy Zamastil of Union City

Parents: Adrian Matthews and Amber Matthews

Question: What advice do you have for incoming freshmen? My only advice for incoming freshmen is to be careful what you wish for, not everything is what it looks/sounds like.

Obion County Prevention Coalition reminds you

Be Smart, Grads: DON'T DRINK & DRIVE!

SEE SOMETHING YOU LIKE?

We can print and laminate your favorites!

Page 16
Wednesday, May 23, 2018

FRIENDS & NEIGHBORS

Anna's Malibu • Society News • Entertainment

Masquerade Theatre and Spotlight Performing Arts present

Disney's BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

IRIS

IRIS — When a selfish prince (Nigel Smith) loses sight of his true self, he is transformed into a beast (Nigel Smith) and his beautiful staff fall under his spell and find themselves changed into the Beast and an assortment of animal objects. In order to break the spell and restore everyone to their human form, Belle must learn to love Belle (Kelli O'Connell). Best left and then to see her love for him transform all. The production, staged at the Capital Theatre in downtown Union City, is the result of the Masquerade Theatre's long-standing partnership with the American Heart Association. Tickets are $10 for students and $15 for adults. Children are encouraged to dress like their favorite prince and princess or other characters from the show and will be invited to parade across the stage before each performance.

CAST
Beauty — Kelli O'Connell
Beast — Nigel Smith
Cogsworth — Josh Williams
Lumiere — Mike Hester
Mrs. Potts — Malinda Williams
Mrs. Bouffant — Ann Marie Williams
LeFou — Ann Marie Williams
Belle's Mother — Ann Marie Williams
Belle's Father — Ann Marie Williams
Enchanted Objects — Ensemble Cast
Director — Edmond O'Connell

VILLAGE INVENTOR — Belle (Kelli O'Connell) leads the cast and crew. Masquerade Theatre's search for the new location — a historical-looking machine. Featured about four weeks in a dark, castle-like structure. The impact of the castle takes the process back, but she is in a danger until his daughter finds him and saves herself in a flash.

CAST
Nigel Smith — Nigel Smith
Kelli O'Connell — Kelli O'Connell
Josh Williams — Josh Williams
Mike Hester — Mike Hester
Malinda Williams — Malinda Williams
Ann Marie Williams — Ann Marie Williams
Ensemble Cast — Ensemble Cast
Director — Edmond O'Connell

IRIS — When a selfish prince (Nigel Smith) loses sight of his true self, he is transformed into a beast (Nigel Smith) and his beautiful staff fall under his spell and find themselves changed into the Beast and an assortment of animal objects. In order to break the spell and restore everyone to their human form, Belle must learn to love Belle (Kelli O'Connell). Best left and then to see her love for him transform all. The production, staged at the Capital Theatre in downtown Union City, is the result of the Masquerade Theatre's long-standing partnership with the American Heart Association. Tickets are $10 for students and $15 for adults. Children are encouraged to dress like their favorite prince and princess or other characters from the show and will be invited to parade across the stage before each performance.

IRIS — When a selfish prince (Nigel Smith) loses sight of his true self, he is transformed into a beast (Nigel Smith) and his beautiful staff fall under his spell and find themselves changed into the Beast and an assortment of animal objects. In order to break the spell and restore everyone to their human form, Belle must learn to love Belle (Kelli O'Connell). Best left and then to see her love for him transform all. The production, staged at the Capital Theatre in downtown Union City, is the result of the Masquerade Theatre's long-standing partnership with the American Heart Association. Tickets are $10 for students and $15 for adults. Children are encouraged to dress like their favorite prince and princess or other characters from the show and will be invited to parade across the stage before each performance.

Page Six

The Messenger, Union City, Tennessee, Wednesday, May 17, 2017

Union City High School Class of 2017

Ready... set... GO! Run raises $22,000 for CF Foundation

Some officials condemn...
Martin man 1 on sex-relates

The Messenger

BRING IN YOUR FAVORITE PHOTOS, ARTICLES, ENGAGEMENTS, WEDDINGS, OBITUARIES, IN MEMORIES, CARDS OF THANKS AND FEATURE PAGES!
GREAT FOR SCRAPBOOKING • MAKES GREAT GIFTS • LET SOMEONE KNOW YOU ARE THINKING ABOUT THEM

8 1/2 X11
 PHOTO $20 / LAMINATES $6

The Messenger
 11X17
 LAMINATES $10

613 E. Jackson Street • Uion City, TN • 731-885-0744 • nwtntoday.com