

My favorite teacher is...

Our Weakley County Valedictorians and Salutatorians were asked which teacher had the greatest impact on their academic career. Here are their answers:

Meyer Blaine Maddox of Dresden

Mrs. Erica Myers: Mrs. Myers pushed me to reach new levels as an academic and encouraged me to seek out and tackle challenges. She really cared about all of her students personally.

Haley Nan Miller

Mrs. Lynn Brasfield: Mrs. Brasfield always made learning fun and she continues to care about her students and their success.

Chandler Brawner of Gleason

Mrs. Amy Orr: Mrs. Orr taught in a very fun and easy-to-learn way. I enjoyed her class each and every day.

Braxton Scott Vickers of Gleason

Mrs. Kay Hudson: The way Mrs. Hudson taught was a fun and very easy-to-learn way. She could put any lesson in a song.

Matthew David Pugh of Greenfield

Robert McCall helped provide myself and others with numerous opportunities to explore different scientific fields.

Mattilyn Jo Sellers of Greenfield

Ms. Linda Farmer: Math has always been my favorite subject and she made my love of math grow even more.

Kari Elizabeth Woods of Westview

Mrs. Jerrrie Moseley has been a 2nd mom to me and has guided me in high school and throughout my life.

Malinda Mae Riddick of Westview

Coach Ed Baker: I had him for 3 of my 4 years at Westview and he always truly cares and teaches amazingly.
