Break for Bach

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2018
 10:00 a.m. | C.E. Weldon Public Library

Take a relaxing break and enjoy the soothing music by JS Bach as performed by Dr. Elaine Harriss, piano, and Bethany Ostenson, violin.

They will perform familiar and beloved music by the master composer.

LEGENDS & LOVE

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2018
 11:00 a.m. & 12:00 p.m.
 The Lindell in Downtown Martin

Audience members will be whisked back to the time of Paul Bunyan and his blue ox, Babe, as they hear some of the stories that made those two famous.

Then they will be transported to a time right before nightfall when a father describes hearing his children playing and attacking him with love like rogue knights attacking a castle.

There will also be a few minutes for children to ask questions about how the music was written.

THE TALES OF PAUL BUNYAN
 by Roberto Mancusi
 Roberto Mancusi, bass

The Magic Flute

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2018
 3:00 p.m. & 3:45 p.m.
 C.E. Weldon Public Library

This children's adaptation of the beloved Opera by Mozart takes the audience on a brief journey to a musical land of make-believe.

The colorful production includes well-known music selections and captures the hearts of all.

UNITED WE STAND

PUPPET SHOW

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2018
 1:30 p.m. | The Lindell in Downtown Martin

Sing along with the many puppets as they perform several familiar patriotic songs. Puppets will tell the history of these songs as popular recording artists sing the songs they made famous.

Join us for a time of celebrating our freedom-puppet style and be sure to wear your RED, WHITE and BLUE.
