

Celebrity Pie in the Face

September 22 at Kiwanis Park

DR. CHARLY EDWARDS

STEVE LADD

RICK LARSON

BENNY MCGUIRE

ZOE RAMAGE

JIM RIPPY

Local celebrities are lining up to take a pie in the face to support WLJT - Public Media for West Tennessee.

Discovery Park of America's Jim Rippy, Union City Coca-Cola Bottling Company's Rick Larson, Obion County Mayor Benny McGuire, Sullivan Dentistry's Dr. Charly Edwards, Kizer Pharmacy's Zoe Ramage and Leaders Credit Union Steve Ladd are all working to raise the most money, and be awarded with a pie in the face at Obion County CornFest's Family Day in the Park on Sept. 22 at 11a.m. on the festival stage.

Stop by these businesses to vote for your favorite celebrity to get a pie in the kisser.

Money raised goes to support WLJT's mission to inspire, educate and entertain all of West Tennessee.

Mandy Hinson of Union City has volunteered with CornFest for 11 years. She is chairman of the Pie Eating Contest and Celebrity Pie in the Face event and co-chairman of the Obion County Public Library/WLJT Kids' Concert. She also serves as public relations.

She is manager of individual giving for WLJT-TV public television for West Tennessee in Martin.

She is married to Brent Hinson, who is also a CornFest volunteer, and is the mother of Xavier Hinson. She is a member and volunteers at Crosswind Church.
