

CornFest volunteers

Rick Larson of Union City is on the CornFest board. He has been a volunteer for many years with the local festival. He is employed with Union City Coca-Cola Bottling Co. He is the father of Jessica, Ricky, Savannah and AnnaRose. He volunteers at several schools and festivals.

Karl Johnson of Union City is the vice co-chairman for the CornFest website. This is his second year volunteering. He is employed at Discovery Park of America. He and his wife, Sandy, have one child, Kelsey. He is a technology stakeholder for the Obion County School System. He is on the advisory board at Tennessee College of Applied Technology-Newbern and on the Main Street-Union City board.

Megan Edington of Troy is chairman for the social media advertising and the cake walk. This is her 10th year volunteering with CornFest. She is an independent insurance broker.

Rhonda Richie of Troy is a member of the CornFest board. She is employed at Union City Coca-Cola Bottling Co. She is married to Brent Richie and has two children, Katelyn and Kacey Kincade. She also volunteers for Obion County Hometown Walk of Hope and Mount Ararat Cumberland Presbyterian Church youth activities.

Miranda Barnes of Martin is in her first year of volunteering with CornFest. She is co-chairman of website design. She is employed at FocalPoint Media.

Allen's
Towing & Recovery

24 Hour Service
Light & Heavy Towing
Road Service
Truck & Trailer Repair
Tire Service
Air Cushion Recovery
Lock Out Service
731-885-9980
Servicing West TN & KY Since 1976

Allen's
Towing & Recovery
Service Center

2013 W. Reelfoot Ave.
allenswrecker.com
731-885-9980

Complete Engine & Transmission Repair
Most Auto Repairs Done SAME DAY!

