

Bed Races

September 22 at Kiwanis Park

Who has the fastest bed in town?

We'll all know, once the fun of the annual Obion County CornFest Bed Race heats are over and done with on East Church Street, adjacent to Kiwanis Park, Sept. 22, soon after the 1 p.m. starting pistol goes off.

Each team of five competitors is advised to "make your bed" as dramatically as possible and choose the team members who will push the single-frame-sized bed with mattress on wheels down the street and those who will ride and guide the way when the event gets under way.

The event is free to watch and enter, with a first prize of $250 and a second of $150. Third prize is $100 and the Best Decorated Bed team will take home $50.

Wood Communications is the sponsor.

Entry forms are available online at obioncountycornfest.org or call (731) 431-8132 for more information.

Robin Wood of Union City in the chairman for the annual CornFest Bed Race. He is the owner of Wood Communications-Cellular Source/Ken-Tenn Wireless in Union City and Verizon Premium Retail in Fulton. He is married to Pat Wood.
